PRESIDENT'S REPORT

A great year in so many ways, but in terms of silverware certainly not a result we are happy with when you think of where we were at the mid season break, but that's cricket and that's the tough nature of the Sydney grade cricket scene.

Although, when you consider the loss of key experienced players, a better outcome than we might have predicted at the start of the season. Across the board, a hard fought result with all teams to varying degrees having success at different stages throughout the year.

I am very enthusiastic about the progress we have made as we leverage our strategic plan and catapult toward a new era.

Much of the off field and on field work in '08/09 has centered around our vision to create the most professional environment in grade cricket.

Clearly, the idea of constructing a new purpose-built facility to foster a high performance culture is a pillar for our future growth. In '08/09 further work was done in terms of community consultation, funding applications and the seemingly endless array of building issues to be overcome.

On the field we again produced high quality players and, week in week out, displayed the Bulldog spirit with pride.

Our renewed focus on coaching and training disciplines paid dividends and prepared us for many challenges and tough matches. I know much of our competition dreads the day they draw Bankstown!

The winning PG squad was the highlight of the year in my mind, a great crop of guys and a real team effort when you consider the involvement of managers, scorers, coaches, parents etc

Again in '08/09 we were the beneficiaries of great support from our sponsors, in particular The Bankstown Sports Club – to whom we owe a substantial debt of gratitude. Nothing is ever too hard for the Sporties – their interest in local sporting and community groups is wide ranging and their contribution substantial.

Additionally, we are continually amazed by the support of Bankstown City Council and we acknowledge their interest in the game of cricket and the community at large. In particular, we are blessed with great facilities and Bankstown Oval under Warwick Starr's direction remains one of the great coliseums.

In summary, like any great organisation we are imbued with great people and culture. A special mention must be made of Eris and Margaret Dignam,

Scott Grant – President

Brian Freedman and Marty Klumpp who are typically first to arrive, last to leave, or constantly managing the general administration of the club.

Also, to the many volunteers, committee members and parents who support the club in so many ways – thank you.

I hope you enjoy the 58th Annual Report – another outstanding production by the genius of David Clifton and Marty Klumpp.

BANKSTOWN DISTRICT CRICKET CLUB INC.

FIFTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT

Marty Klumpp – Honorary Secretary

I have pleasure in presenting the Fifty Eighth Annual Report and Financial Statement.

Following the retirement of club stalwarts and former first class players, Corey Richards, Scott Thompson and David Freedman, season 2008-09 was always going to be about re-building and consolidation.

So, it is with great pleasure that I can report that we finished fifth in the Club Championship, won the prestigious Poidevin-Gray Shield after a 'drought' of 19 years, and that our gutsy first grade side was defeated in a tightly-fought semi-final by Premiers St George – having qualified for the finals series as tearaway winners of the Minor Premiership in both the two-day and one-day competitions.

Congratulations to our 'Cricket Operations Committee' – headed by Geoff Spotswood, Mark Grant and Chris Gane – for the strategic and practical planning that underpinned our on-field results.

Jerry Cassell walked through the gate via Brisbane and London on Corey Richards' recommendation and asked "any chance of a game?" A handy 805 runs at 50 average later we were indeed very lucky to have such a class player join the squad.

Danny Waugh will be stepping down as first grade captain next season due to increasing work and family commitments. What a gem of a bloke – and a huge cricket talent to boot. Let's hope Danny can find time to stay actively involved as we desperately need his experience, talent and personal style.

The redoubtable Dean Magee again let his bat do the talking with 626 runs at 52 average in second Grade. To say Deano has a competitive nature is an understatement – so this re-building phase is tough for him. His passion for the game and his club is a huge asset.

Daniel Moy and Brad Christensen have announced that they won't be able to captain third grade and fourth grade respectively next season. To have progressed from playing cricket in the Bankstown Junior Association as ten year olds, to becoming fully fledged grade players and finally to have captained a grade side is a fantastic effort and Daniel and Brad should be very proud of their achievements.

In fourth grade, Ryan Donovan was in great form with the bat averaging 63 while in fifths Luke De Celis showed he has a bright future taking 35 wickets at 15 average.

Ray Hall, Rob Shaw and David Clifton formed a cohesive coaching and management team for our AW Green Shield campaign and the players responded with solid performances. Jake Cormack led the statistics with 182 runs at 60 average and he is clearly an exciting prospect.

And so to the victorious Poidevin-Gray Shield side. The Lance Keen-managed and Simon Keen-led side proved the adage that a champion team will always rise above a team of champions, as every player in the squad, at some point, made a significant contribution towards the premiership.

Anthony Sams showed his class, winning the Shane Lee Medal as 'Player of the Final' and scoring 362 runs at 51 average throughout the series. Daniel Burns should also share the plaudits for his efforts as co-skipper and snaring 12 wickets at 17 average.

Off the field the club continued to provide support to the Bankstown Sports Women's Cricket Club. This Club has emerged as the leading women's club in the state, and probably the country, winning successive club championships and first grade premierships. Add the Brewer Shield title last season and you start to get some idea of the quality of the club's performances.

All credit to President Rob Smith who carries a workload that rivals the best efforts I've seen from cricket administrators in my twenty-odd years on this side of the cricket fence! Also to Rob and Robyn Mack – you are just fantastic at fostering our emerging talent.

The Women's Club also has the services of two fantastic long serving senior members, Sharon Millanta and Belinda Allard. Clubs don't thrive unless they have senior players like Belinda and Sharon who are prepared to contribute so positively both on and off the field.

Bankstown Memorial Oval was judged as the number one ground in Sydney winning the 'SCA Ground of the Year' award. Warwick Starr and his team worked tirelessly to support the men's and women's clubs, Junior Association representative matches and just for good measure Memorial Oval hosted six matches as part of the ICC Women's World Cup! We should never underestimate the quality of support we receive from Warwick and his team.

Our club continues to demonstrate a strong social conscience. Elsewhere in this annual report you'll see a special feature on some of the special projects we're undertaking to engage with and add value to our local community, the wider cricket community and the world at large.

Put simply these projects are 'the right thing to do' but they also have the wonderful payback of helping to build a strong internal culture and external 'brand'.

Our volunteer base continued to excel and is the rock upon which the club is built. In fact, volunteers are the rock upon which our game is built!

Thank you to every person who helps with scoring duties, laying and removing wicket covers, works in the canteen or generally makes life easier for players and visitors. You are too numerous to name here, however, indulge me as I think it's appropriate to single out the following volunteers:

Eris and Margaret Dignam

Eris and Margaret touch just about every facet of our club's operations and excel at them all.

Eris's dedication is legendary and has been recognised at the highest levels of the game.

Margaret's nomination for Life Membership is just recognition for the countless hours she contributes in book-keeping, canteen work and general administration tasks. Margaret's planning, organising and controlling (Eris!) skills are quite amazing and we are so, so lucky to have her as the mother of our extended Bulldog family.

David Clifton is a huge asset for our club making invaluable contributions in a number of areas. Whether it's graphic design, website administration, collecting recycled equipment for the Uganda Appeal or hauling covers or practice equipment about, David attacks every task with professionalism, enthusiasm and good humour.

Mick Stephenson continues to write the best match reports in Sydney grade cricket and his knowledge of the club's history is without equal.

Brian Freedman continued his selfless contribution to this club and cricket generally. My work commitments are pretty hectic these days and I could not handle the ever increasing administrative load without Brian. Brian remains a driving force behind our community support activities, our fund-raising efforts, the management of our relationships with key sponsors, Cricket NSW and the Sydney Cricket Association. Brian also volunteers a lot of time supporting Cricket Australia's efforts to develop the game in Central and South Asia.

Scott Grant continued to provide excellent leadership despite a heavy professional workload. Thanks Shrub, your efforts are vital to our continued success and greatly appreciated.

The Cricket Operations Committee has been working hard during the off-season planning for the new season. James Allsopp will be taking over from Daniel as first grade skipper. As tough as it is to lose Daniel's leadership experience, it is equally exciting to have such a committed clubman and genuinely decent young man as James taking over the helm.

That's about it from me. September is almost here. The smell of freshly cut grass and the whack of leather on bat! Time for the planning and the talking to stop – this is the fun bit – making it happen.

Anthony Sams and Ryan Beavan bring home the Poidevin Gray Shield

BANKSTOWN CRICKET CONTRIBUTING TO THE WIDER COMMUNITY

It was Steve Waugh who first said "Anyone can make a difference" and it is Steve Waugh who continues to set the standard for sportsmen and sporting organisations in using their profile and influence for the good of the wider community.

One of the six themes in our vision statement states that we aim to be "An outstanding community citizen making a valuable contribution to Bankstown, our partners, people and sport"

...and by being true to this aim, as well as following Steve's example and leadership, we have continued to develop our social conscience and undertaken a number of community based projects both in Australia and overseas assisting those less fortunate than us. The major projects this year have been...

BREAST CANCER

For the fifth consecutive year, our wonderful ladies group again conducted their fundraising Fashion Night where they raised just on $2000. It was decided that this money again be directed to the fight against Breast Cancer, the insidious disease that has so affected our club and specifically towards an awareness campaign for senior schoolgirls conducted by Jill Allsopp.

Well done ladies, you continue to do the club proud.

Like many in the cricket and wider community, the club was saddened at the passing of Jane McGrath and made a significant donation in her memory to the McGrath Foundation. All players were issued with pink bat grips in support of Breast Cancer awareness and we congratulate them for their unanimous acceptance of this initiative.

FATHER CHRIS RILEY'S ACEH (INDONESIA) ORPHANAGE

Tony Stewart MP, the State Member for Bankstown and long time supporter of the club has for many years aided Fr. Riley in his outstanding humanitarian endeavours.

In March, when the two gentlemen traveled to Aceh in north-western Indonesia, an area decimated by the tsunami, to open an orphanage Fr. Riley had built for survivors, they took with them two full Kanga cricket kits which the club donated.

We have received independent reports that the kits have been a great hit with the children who are really enjoying their cricket.

UGANDA CRICKET ASSOCIATION

In 2004 we became aware of the great work being done in Uganda to develop cricket in the most difficult circumstances

With a population of just over 30 million, where in excess of 80 per cent live in poverty and the average annual per capita income is just over $US200, Uganda had approximately 20,000 youngsters playing cricket, predominately with hand-crafted (home-made) gear.

We conducted a campaign to collect used and unwanted cricket equipment in 2005 and were able to ship a container load to the Uganda Cricket Association to be distributed amongst schools and clubs

We assumed that this would be a one-off occasion. However, the response from Uganda was so positive, it was decided that we would conduct a second campaign which was launched at the 2007 Ashes Test. With wonderful support from clubs, schools, manufacturers and individuals, we were again able to fill and ship a container.

We again assumed this would be the end of the project, however donations of equipment continued to roll in as the awareness spread and we have recently shipped a third container which will arrive in Uganda and be distributed prior to their new season commencing in September 2009.

Each container has included approximately 250 bats, 400 pairs of batting pads, 350 pairs of batting gloves, 90 pairs of wicket keeping gloves, 100 helmets as well as protectors, thigh pads, stumps, balls etc. In the most recent container, we were able to include a huge amount of cricket clothing including over 2000 shirts, most of which are new.

Also included in this container was approximately 2000 books, kindly donated by Keith Ainsworth Pty. Ltd., and which we have organised to be distributed to schools, along with a carton of much-needed surgical equipment donated by Ron Wright of Parramatta DCC which is going directly to hospitals.

Getting a container to landlocked Uganda is not easy and is very expensive. After leaving Sydney, it is trans-shipped in Singapore to Mombassa, Kenya where it is unloaded and transported by train to Kampala in Uganda. We remain most grateful to our outstanding sponsor, Bankstown Sports Club - which has met the $8000 shipping cost on each occasion and without whose support this project could not have happened.

Mayor of Bankstown, Cllr Tania Mihailuk with cricketer, Sam Devlin at Bankstown Memorial Oval during this year's ICC Women's World Cup.

HARMONY DAY

Bankstown's long-standing friendship with cricket was made even stronger when Mayor of Bankstown, Cllr Tania Mihailuk, hosted a Harmony Day luncheon during this year's ICC Women's World Cup at Bankstown Memorial Oval in March.

Cllr Mihailuk's visit to the oval during the third and fourth playoff's of the Cup proved to also be the perfect opportunity to announce good news-the introduction of a development scholarship for young women cricketers in Bankstown.

Over the next 12 months, high school-aged female cricketers will be able to apply for one of ten $500 cash grants being made available to assist them develop their skills and attend selection trials.

Bankstown has long been synonymous with cricket and Council hopes that these grants will in some small way lead to developing our next cricketing stars.

COACHING REPORT 08/09

David Drew

After my appointment as Head coach in April I was excited, overwhelmed and eager. My first port of call was to contact Eris and discuss the pre-season. Eris was outstanding as per usual. He had things under control which made my job so much easier. For a new coach, having someone like Eris around sure made you feel at ease.

Eris' involvement didn't end there. We were in contact a couple of times a week organising training and touching base to iron out any problems that may have arisen. Thanks for everything, mate.

To Eris and all the other hard working dads and volunteers thank you for your assistance at training and on game days. I know how lucky we are to have all of you at our club.

To my fellow coaches, Ray, Les, John, Emu and Scott, thanks guys for your support, assistance, points of view and eagerness during the season. The players and I appreciate your time and expertise.

To Danny, Dean, Danny, Brad and Spotty thanks for allowing me to sit in on selections and giving me the opportunity to share my point of view on certain matters and vice versa. I hope this link continues and becomes stronger next season. Good luck next season.

To the Cricket Committee and Management Committee, thank you for giving me the opportunity to coach at arguably the best grade cricket club in Australia. Your ongoing support has been outstanding and I look forward to developing this in the coming season.

To all the players who represented the Mighty Bulldogs during the season, thank you for your patience, enthusiasm, assistance, friendship and willingness to help in any way possible. Although we didn't achieve outstanding results this year, we have definitely shown signs that we will be a force to reckon with in the future. Coming 5th in the Club Championship was an amazing effort when you consider that this year was to be a rebuilding year. With the PG team, under the guidance of Simon and Lance, winning the competition definitely shows that we have a bright future ahead of us.

Finally, we are putting some initiatives in place during the off season so that we are ready to hit the ground running come the start of the new season. It is important that everyone involved in the club reflects on their effort from last season and tries to improve by 10% next season. It all starts with the pre season and doing that little bit extra now in preparation for the season ahead. The pre-season program should be on the web site. Please use the web site as your first reference point for all matters relating to the club.

Remember to do everything you do
WITH PURPOSE, FOR A PURPOSE.

BANKSTOWN DISTRICT CRICKET ASSOCIATION

The Bankstown District Cricket Association, sponsored by Bankstown District Sports Club, provided great support for participation level cricket that could be accessed by players of all abilities and ages.

This Association would not be able to operate without the volunteer support of Pam and Pat Gavin in the Honorary Secretary and President roles.

We are greatly indebted to Pam and Pat for their support of cricket at all levels in the district.

Local competitions continued to supply enjoyable cricket and they also provide a pathway to the NSW Districts Cricket Association Representative Series and the Sydney Cricket Association.

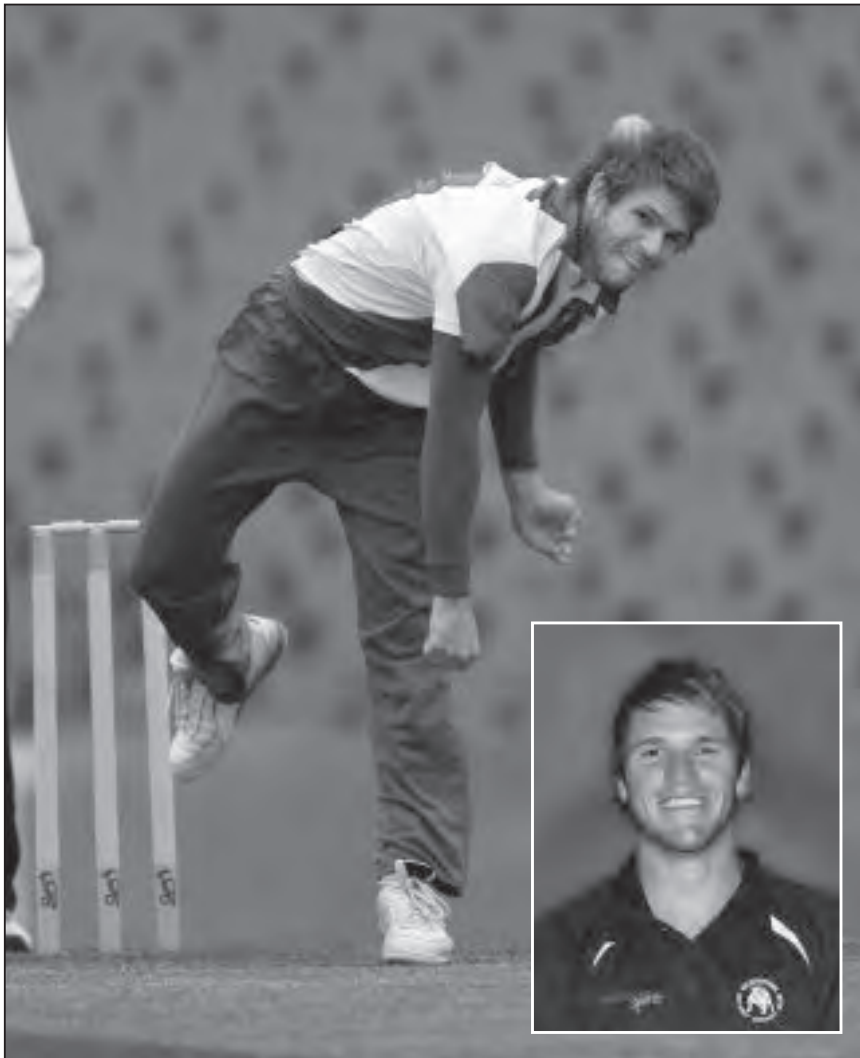

Our Club believes that providing on-going financial support to the BDCA is a high priority.

This includes requirements like turf wicket hire fees for representative teams, the activities of the Junior Development Program managed by the Coaches and Managers group and providing sponsorship to young local players selected for representative teams.

We are working closely with the BDCA and the newly appointed Cricket New South Wales Development Officer, Kurt Gagan, to ensure the District Association receives every possible support with pre-season marketing and in-season support of team coaches and managers.

FIRST GRADE – THE BELVIDERE CUP

Danny Waugh

Congratulations once again to Graeme Rummans and his St. George team for taking out the premiership. Also, well done to Mosman for winning the one-day competition and Northern Districts for their Twenty20 win.

Unfortunately for Bankstown, we put ourselves in a strong position to take out both competitions but failed to produce our best cricket when it mattered most. Winning 15 out of 19 round games was a fine achievement but losing all 3 finals games we contested didn't do justice to the cricket we played for most of the season. Winning that many games was due to some great individual performances and a team that played well together - it was a case of if the top order didn't fire the lower order would step up.

During the season we had some memorable games including coming back from a batting collapse against Penrith and managing to get home by 5 runs, the huge run chase at Blacktown, a convincing outright against Campbelltown, scraping home against Easts in the dark with 3 balls to spare and probably the most rewarding was narrowly beating Hawkesbury at Hawkesbury. There's no doubt if you come to watch Bankstown first grade you are guaranteed to see a close game!

The individual performances this year with four batters getting over 600 runs and four bowlers getting over 25 wickets was a massive improvement on the previous season's statistics. Even though at the end of the season there were no trophies in the cabinet for first grade, it can be looked back on as a successful year and a stepping-stone into an era of strong Bankstown teams. Being so close to winning was frustrating, but hopefully everyone involved will learn from the experience and next time that we are in the same position, players will step-up and get us over the line.

A big congratulations to Simon Keen and the PG's side who fully deserved winning the under 21 competition. It's a great sign for the club that our junior sides are doing so well and many of the younger players have had invaluable experience playing in the higher grades.

As with any sporting club there are many people behind the scenes, who make the club tick. Bankstown's volunteers and helpers are the envy of all the clubs in the competition and their hard work allows the players to concentrate on getting out there and playing. It's certainly evident whenever we play at other grounds how lucky we are to play at such a well-run club. Accordingly, there are many people that need to be thanked for their efforts.

To David Drew who took over as club coach - his commitment and passion for the club has seen immediate results. Drew ensured that we were well prepared for each game and training was always run with a purpose.

To Ken Hall. With the side being predominately on the young side it was great to have Emu around to give advice and impart his vast knowledge and experience of grade cricket onto the players. Along with Drewy he needs to work on his touch football refereeing in the off season.

To Geoff Price, thanks for providing the team with drinks, lollies and whatever the players needed.

To Sherrol, thanks again for your professionalism behind the laptop and making sure that I had the correct players on the team sheet every game.

FIRST GRADE PLAYER PROFILES

To Spotty and my fellow captains for making sure every player got a fair hearing at selections; I think for the most part the selection committee got it right.

To Eris and co. for running the club like a well-oiled machine – as they have done ever since I can remember.

To all the ladies who help out around the club, we always get compliments from opposing teams and umpires on how good our lunches (chicken burgers) and afternoon tea are done.

To Mike Stephenson and the loyal band on supporters on the hill, your support is much appreciated.

Finally to the Bankstown Sports Club and our other sponsors for investing in the club so we can continue to being one of the leading cricket clubs in Australia.

Danny Waugh

Danny's final year as Captain was, in my view, his finest since he joined the grade ranks. He may have won premierships and personal awards in other years, but I really believe we saw a true leader emerge last season. I'm sure Danny will now develop those attributes further in his business career. Moulding a team of young players is never easy but Danny ensured every player had that key ingredient of 'self belief' and it showed in the team's overall performance. Well done, Danny – we hope you can continue your involvement for many years to come. MK

James Allsopp

Prince once again did a professional job behind the stumps showing he is one of the premier keepers in the comp. With the added responsibility of being captain next year his game with both the gloves and bat should go to another level.

Aaron Bird

Aaron played a starring role for NSW in one-dayers and Twenty20s, which meant that we didn't get to see him for a great deal of the year. NSW's gain was our loss as Birdy is a genuine match-winner with both bat and ball.

Jackson Bird

Jacko had a fantastic first half of the season with the highlights being his 7 for 26 wicket haul against Parramatta and destroying the top order of Sydney Uni. Has the ability to become a very handy lower order batsmen and this year played some of the finest cover drives you will ever see.

Daniel Burns

It's easy to forget Daniel is still playing in PGs as he looks so comfortable and confident in 1st grade. 29 wickets at 29, plus some very handy knocks with the bat is a year that Burnsie can build on. If he works as hard as he did this year I'm sure there will be some big wicket hauls to come next year.

Jerry Cassell

Jerry was a great acquisition for the dogs this year, opening the batting and scoring 800 runs at 50 was a huge effort for his first year in Sydney Grade. What makes his season even more remarkable is that he scored most of his runs using only three quarters of a bat!

Pat Darwen

Improving with every game, Patty is turning into a match winner with both bat and ball. 616 runs and 18 wickets is a solid season - hard work paired with his natural ability next year and I'm sure he can push for second eleven games.

Chris Gane

Taking on the responsibility of batting at number three sat well with Chris whose return of 779 runs at 40 is a fine effort. One of the best strikers of a cricket ball in the game and he wouldn't look out of place playing at the next level. His 113no vs Randwick-Petersham and match winning 144 vs Blacktown were a testament to his ability and potential.

Byron Hackshall

Although Byron only played a handful of games, it is evident he has what it takes to have an impact with both the bat and ball. A powerful 42no against Manly showed he can be a highly effective lower order bat in first grade. With continued hard work, a permanent spot in 1sts is his for the taking.

Simon Keen

Simon's a quality all-rounder and is a key player in the side. This year saw him get a taste of state cricket after stringing together several match-winning performances in 1sts. Being awarded player of the year was just reward for all the hard work he puts into his game.

Clinton Price

Pricey handled opening the bowling in first grade with the level of control that makes him one of the most reliable bowlers a captain could hope for. Has that great ability to land the ball in the same area over after over, creating pressure on the opposition. A great team man who always puts in his best for the Bulldogs.

Anthony Sams

A well deserved promotion to first grade was more than justified with a fine 103 against Northern Districts. Anthony took on the tough role of opening and handled it with experience beyond his years. Certainly the best fielder for a keeper that the game has ever seen!

Scott Thompson

It was an added bonus to have Thommo around this year and his skill and work ethic is second to none in grade cricket. He showed on several occasions he can still mix it with guys half his age and even on one leg. When Thommo finally does retire he will be a very hard player to replace.

Scott Truashiem

Scott bowled really well on several occasions but without any luck. Scott's figures certainly didn't do his performances justice. Once he gets going in first grade permanently, there will be no stopping him. Definitely the hardest bowler to face in the nets.

2ND GRADE

SECOND GRADE – THE ALBERT CUP

Dean Magee

Firstly, congratulations to Danny Ward and Sydney University for back to back titles.

I would like to thank the following people for their efforts during a testing year for 2nd grade, as follows in no particular order:

- Lindsay Roworth for helping out and looking after the drinks and anything else needed throughout the year, your help is very much appreciated and certainly something that is not taken for granted, so thank you.
- Wendy Ridley for scoring - always does a great job and always has a smile for us no matter how great or how poorly we perform.
- Warwick Starr and his ground staff for providing the nicest ground in Sydney to play on - always a pleasure to play at home.
- Eris and his trusty volunteers for always being on hand to help prepare the ground, remove the covers and anything else us precious cricketers are too lazy to do for ourselves - you really do spoil us.
- The ladies in the canteen for their preparation of lunches and afternoon teas and especially to the captain of the kitchen – Margaret Dignam – who always looks after me and not only makes my lunch, but also helps me lose money by putting my bets on!
- To Spotty and my fellow selectors for backing my choices throughout the year and to David Drew, who in his first year as coach was outstanding, always happy to listen and willing to try new things - he was like a 20 year veteran, awesome job Drewy!!!

What a difference a year can make.

Last year fighting it out for the title and this year hardly putting up a fight, very disappointing.

Yes there were players who went up to first grade and Eddo went off to the Tigers and Gordo back to Scotland, but all in all, a forgetful year.

For every negative, there were some positives, Clinton Price having a full year in first grade was a great reward for toiling so hard in 2s the previous year, Anthony Sams making his way to the top of the order in 1s after some awesome performances in 2nd grade, the arrival of Curtis Leman and Mitchell Baker in 2s from 5th grade and the re-emergence of Brad Roworth and Ryan Beaven was very pleasing to myself and the boys should be proud of there efforts.

It really was a year of missed opportunities that saw us fall just outside of the top 6, a chance for outright went begging after we made all the play against North Sydney when we grassed 7 chances, also the fight back against rivals Campbelltown from Big Scotty and Byron deserved the points.

With those two victories we would have slipped into the semis, but not to be this year. We did however beat the premiers in one of the games of the season, with Scotty and Spiders Turner getting us home with a last wicket stand of over 20 securing an exciting win.

On a brighter note, we did have some great performances with Brad Roworth notching his first 2nd grade hundred with 117 n.o. against Parramatta, Anthony Sams and Dean Burke also scoring hundreds and yours truly was lucky enough to slip in with a 176 and 139 as well. On the bowling side of things Byron and Spiders Turner got a 5 wicket haul each and 'Scotty too tall' Truashiem confirmed he is the world's unluckiest bowler by beating the bat at least 2-3 times an over! The amazing effort of the year certainly belonged to Byron and Scott with their amazing effort against Campbelltown that showed they are destined for higher honours, to bowl for 2 hours in 43 degree heat had to be seen to be believed - their team mates were in awe and luckily for us there was a paramedic on the opposing side just in case we had to scrap the big man off Raby Oval. Great effort boys!

All in all, not a great season with a lot of guys moving through the grades, it never helps when a player doesn't feel settled in a team, but in saying that, it is the nature of cricket and something a successful club has to put up with.

If I could just be my brutal honest self for a minute, some of you guys really need to stand up next season! Averaging 25-30 with the bat and 35-40 with the ball will not be good enough to cut it for the upcoming year. If you really want to play cricket at this level, then commit the time, stop doing things with 50% effort, train hard and with a purpose. Stop worrying about others, respect the opposition and if you sledge, back it up with some runs and wickets - otherwise just get on with it. It is time boys! Use this season to turn your potential into runs and wickets, control what you can and stop worrying about the things you can't and I'm 100% certain we will have another year we can be proud of and I can write something nice next year!

Lastly, what a huge loss Michael Polson was for our team this year, it will be great to have a fully fit male model back in our side. He is also sorely missed in our after game celebrations, the ultimate team man who we missed big time on and off the field.

Dean Magee

A frustrating year for someone as competitive as Dean. Leading an inexperienced team in Second Grade is a very tough assignment but this passionate clubman will be back for more I know. Dean's own performances were solid scoring 626 at 52 average. Dean has much to offer the Club on and off the field and should be encouraged to contribute in a range of areas going forward. We need people with his experience and love for the game. MK

Darryn Bull

Love playing cricket with Bully, always does his best for the team and gives 100%.

Had some problems with his breathing in one particular game and asked if he could have a little rest for 10mins, I didn't have to give him an answer, as he took one look at me and must have thought to himself, did I really just ask that? As always, stayed on the park and finished the job.

Bully, you know you need to train to be at your best and if you get there you will continue to play higher grades.

Brad Roworth

Finally, the real Brad Roworth came to play this year, the one we have all known was inside him for years! A great all round year for Rowy, 430 runs, a dozen wickets, outstanding fielding and a great attitude! If you have a good start to the year mate, I don't think you will see much of 2nd grade. Should be very proud of your year, as I certainly was.

Dean Burke

Burky, the Burke dog! What can I say about the Burke dog? Outstanding player, but after a great start to the year, it all went pear-shaped, not sure if it was his new girlfriend or his pommy boyfriend, but something happened to him! Hopefully, with his work life going well, it will be all good this year - a player of your standard, mate, should be averaging more than 33 with the stick.

Get to training, work hard on your fitness and bounce back to the player we all know you can be.

Best dance move in the club, but still needs a map in the field!

SECOND GRADE PLAYER PROFILES

Byron Hackshall

The great 'Brian Chainsaw.' Good all round year from Byron, 280 runs and 28 wickets is a good year, but need to turn the good years into great ones mate. A little more patience with the ball and your 3 wkts will turn to 5. Great technique with the bat, one of the best in the club, but need more 70's and 100's and less 30's. Massive heart, will bowl all day, a great team man and a pleasure to have in my side.

Brent Turner

Had a great start to the year, but tapered off in the middle part, bowled some very handy spells for us, except the one against Penrith, the spiders apparently got to him. Probably need to train as hard during the season as you do at the start and you will find more consistency in your bowling.

If you want to play higher grades, try to work at matching the intensity of your team mates on a consistent basis.

Scott Truashiem

The big man is a victim of his own potential, always the next bowler picked in 1st grade and always the first bowler picked in 2nd grade, unfortunately this amounts to Scott never finding any rhythm whatsoever. If he played 1st grade he would get a token 3 over's and in 2nd grade he beats the bat every 3rd ball and can't buy a wicket, maybe you are just too tall? Hopefully we can get you in one grade for a few games and you can show just how great you are going to be. All the best TC!

Michael Polson

What a disaster of a year for the Male model, modeling work dried up, uni got busier and then in trying to work on his finely toned abdominal muscles by his pool, he dislocated his knee cap on New Year's Eve! Only played a handful of games, but already keen for his comeback next year. Now your best mate is captain of 1's you might be able to slide your way in there, as that is the only way I used to get a game apparently!

Ryan Beaven

Ryan finally realized he belongs back in his whites and out of the night clubs! His return to 2nd grade after only 2 games in lower grades, showed just what a talent he is and will continue to be.

Great team man, always put the team before himself, especially by taking on the gloves at short notice. One of the most gifted sportsman in the club and will only get better with a good pre-season behind him.

Chris Ridley

Rids, your 260 runs @29 certainly does not indicate what a good player you are, this coming year you really do need to stand up and show you are a 1st grader. Get back to your normal game, bat all day and be selfish, then you will be doing your job for the team.

Great fielder, one of the best trainers, keep working hard and the results will come.

Matthew Smith

After a solid start to the year in 2's and with not a lot of luck early on, Matty's year was a little inconsistent. Struggled a little with the pace he needs to bowl in 2nd grade, especially when being attacked at times, but that will come with experience. Keep practising hard at your craft.

Andy O'Brien

Not a great year for Andy, work too busy, not enough time at training and it showed in his results.

You know what you have to do and I hope you go around for another year, as a player of your quality shouldn't be happy to finish your career with poor stats. As Burke dog would say = Great human and want you to play again!

Joel Smith

The paddle pop lion, bowled well in patches, especially against North Sydney with 3 wickets in as many overs that nearly secured us maximum points. Need to work on your run up and hopefully grow a couple of inches (in height) and I'm sure the future will be bright. Always fun to have around, but turn your mobile off next year, you're not playing kid's cricket anymore!

Steven Wise

Smartest man in the club? If that is true, then why do you keep? Anyway, let's push on. Great hands, great man, solid with the bat, but most of all, great clubman!

A pleasure to play with and brings up the average age, which is always handy.

Luke Reece

Limited opportunities this year for Luke, rated highly by most, scores runs in PG's and a few in 3rd grade, but really needs to convert those start's into big scores to play higher grades.

Another one with loads of potential, but needs to start showing more than that this coming year.

Awesome trainer who never misses a day, keep working hard for your results mate.

Mitch Baker

The current Player's Player of the Year and well-deserved, always on hand to help out and do all the things nobody else wants to do. Had limited opportunities with the bat in 2s, but did very well with the ball, promising leggie with a more than a bright future.

Need a fair bit of work on your batting to become an all rounder in the higher grades, but keep training hard, as you do and it will all come together.

Tristan Muir

Limited time at the crease for Tristan probably didn't showcase his real talent, but did score heavily in 3's, so with a good off season and a solid start to the year may become a permanent fixture in 2's.

Really need to work hard on your fitness, as with Joel, this is not kid's cricket anymore, it is 100 overs in the heat and you need to be switched on from ball 1 until ball 600!

One of the real talents of the club, which he obviously inherited from his Dad, as was evident on the games night with smashing everyone in the table tennis, including the girls.

James Bourne

Not a lot of opportunities for Bourney, but did put back to back hundreds together to force his way back in to 2nd grade and the year probably finished a little too early for him, as he was in great form towards the end of the year. A good start to next season will see you playing more 2s mate.

Once again, one of the best clubman and always a pleasure to have in any team.

Daniel Sams

Daniel came into the team for the last couple of games and impressed the right people with his accuracy and knowledge of his bowling. One of the new breed of young cricketers at the club and being left-handed never hurts. Very steady batsmen and with natural progression could easily go a long way in this club and beyond. Just work on your fitness as with the other young guys, there will be a lot of long days that you need to prepare yourself for.

Curtis Leman

Curtis has burst onto the scene and been an immediate success in 2's. Started in 5th grade and with strong performances early on progressed through the grades rapidly. Showed he is up to it in his debut year in 2nds with strong all-round performances and as with Daniel Sams, has a massive future at the club.

Hampered by back problems and blow to the face from James Bourne were the only things stopping him from being an automatic selection in 2nd grade.

Anthony Sams

Only played the first 5 games and scored 275 @ 55 to go into first grade and never to be seen again in 2's. Showed how good he is with his maiden 1st grade hundred and plenty more to come for Tony!

Thanks also to the following players for your contributions throughout the year...

Steven Burt, Sam Reece, Derryn Thomas and a special mention must go to Scott Thompson for his one game in 2s, even though he scored no runs, took no wickets and we lost the game, but thanks for helping out, though, mate.

Checking the action at Grahame Thomas.

3RD GRADE

THIRD GRADE – THE MITCHELL CUP AND PLAYER PROFILES

Daniel Moy

Another year goes by and another premiership to the Doggies in the PG side. Congratulations to the Keenies and the boys in their victory over Gordon. I thank the boys for letting me be a part of it even if that part is being one of the guys drinking on the boundary in support. Very gracious indeed and would do it again happily!

Looking back at the beginning of the year and sitting down with the other captains, one thing was clear. After losing so many quality players in the top two grades we needed every player at the club to stand up and be counted. And I'm pleased to say that very largely they did!

For me in 3rd grade, it was players like Joel Smith, Dean Bush and Daniel Sams who answered the call in the somewhat depleted fast bowling ranks. And these guys were all playing 4th/5th grade last year and all went on to not only find solid spots in 3rd grade, but play 2nd grade as well.

It was also great to see the likes of Tristan Muir and James Bourne hit over 400 runs in 3rd grade.

For me though, it has always been about getting all the players who come through 3rd grade prepared for the higher grades. Having played both, and I am sure the boys who played 2nd grade this year would agree, it is a big jump to seconds. It is that same big jump again to first grade. This is not something you would be accustomed to in the lower grades.

It has also been about improving and this year we did just that in many respects. More importantly, we did it in a time of transition, which is always the hardest. Seeing how we came through this year makes me very excited about our future prospects.

For 3rd grade we had 4 centuries and seven scores of 50 or more which is a great improvement on last year. We had two players score more than 400 runs in a year (James Bourne and Tristan Muir). It would be fair to say that consistency and the ability to control and dominate oppositions with the bat was not however a strength, more so an opportunity.

Our bowling, it could be said, was a strength with four bowlers taking over 50 wickets between them – not including our main two opening bowlers. Daniel Sams returned the excellent bowling average of 14 - an outstanding effort from this promising player.

The bulldogs have a great tradition of providing off-field support to our players and once again there was no shortage of followers in third grade last season. Mr Burt, Mr Smith, Mr Bush, Mr Sams, Mr Reece, Mr Muir and Mr Dunn were always on hand. Always around doing something for us whether it was scoring, sorting out sightscreens, removing covers or supplying drinks - you name it, they did it. David Clifton's efforts with the website etc. were brilliant - thank you.

To all the mums, dads, etc for showing up, giving support and dropping the kids off. To the people in the canteen... thank you.

Many may know this will be my last year of captaincy for a while due to the impending birth of our first child in August. As such, I would also like to pass on my thanks to Scott, Marty and Eris and the entire Executive and the associated committees at the club for their support and guidance. It has been an absolute honour to be given the chance to do this and would do so again in the future should the opportunity arise.

My personal thanks go to my fellow 'captains in arms'. They know only too well the effort that goes into being a captain. Deliberating on the selection of a specific grade side for two hours whether it be 1st grade or 5th grade, dropping players, communicating with parents - the list goes on.

Special mention to Geoff Spotswood, who as Chairman ensured the highest level of professionalism applied to all our dealings. All the best in the future seasons, you know you will always have my support in whatever capacity you may need it.

Lastly, to all the players who played in 3rd grade this year – a huge thank you. Your attitude and efforts made it so easy to come out and play cricket each Saturday.

See you all next year.

Danny Moy

As always, Daniel was totally dedicated to his leadership of the side and his own performances. The latter was solid taking the bowling honours with 18 wickets at 24 average. Danny can be very proud of what he's achieved since taking over the captaincy and unless I'm a bad judge, he will be back for more when his work and home situations allow. Well done Daniel. MK

Chris Bennett

It was great to see 'Benno' back at the club this year after finding out the grass is always greener at Bankstown. Early indicators were that it was to be a big year for Benno however it failed to translate in the middle with only 20 from 5 innings. Some consecutive good scores in fourth grade saw him return to third grade but he was unlucky enough to be struck down through injury. Just got to find a way to harness that super potential!

James Bourne

Having played cricket with Little Lunch throughout my entire cricketing life I know what this guy is capable of and boy did we see it this year - and then some! Two of the biggest and strongest centuries strung back to back you will ever see. Also got hit for one of the biggest sixes I have seen with Eris picking the ball out of a chicken burger in the canteen the next field over. The ultimate clubman, Bourne is my idea of "The Ideal Bulldog".

Dean Bush

I saw the 'Bushdog' in pre-season this year and said 'wow he has come a long way since last year'. With an extra yard in pace, I threw him the new ball this year and asked him to swing the ball away from the bat. A great sign is that he can now back up his opening spell with some superb tight bowling to the middle order, constantly getting a breakthrough when we needed it. Congratulations on well-deserved rep honors this year - I am sure there are more to come.

Cameron Dunn

Found some real consistency with his bowling this year and had 10 wickets in 2 matches at one point. The wickets eluded him post-Christmas but did maintain some good line and length. A bit unlucky with the bat this year but this will turn this around I'm sure.

Mark Grant

By his own standards he might say this year was a lean year for him with 278 @ 25 but provided that little bit of stability in the middle order when needed. Plant played a pivotal role in the side, helping support a lot of new young guns slide into the grade after losing quite a few senior players to the top two grades this year. This will prove to be invaluable in the coming years as these young guns start leading the way themselves off the back off a lot of Mark's advice. Highlight this year would be seeing the vest in the umpire's arms and seeing Plant take 2-12 against Sutherland.

James Hopkins

Scored a fantastic century against UNSW and has a great deal of potential at the top of the order. However, with only one other score over 25, James just needs that consistency in his game to take him to the next level. Looking forward to seeing James dominate next year.

Matt Hopkins

A very steady and selective top order batsman, we saw glimpses of Hoppers alter ego 'The Angry Hop'. None more so than the game against Easts where, in a rain-affected match, alongside Plant, he exploded with 55 not out off 60 balls to win the match. Only needs to be more aware of field placings to start dominating bowlers, instead of the other way around. I wouldn't mind seeing Angry Hopper more often - just to see more batsmen get 'lidded' after they call his brother names!

Tristan Muir

It took two years of my captaincy to get through to Tristan, but he finally applied it this year and adapted his game. With an aggregate of 430 runs @ 36 average 'Sponge Bob' not only cemented a spot in 3rds this year, he even saw a bit of 2nd grade. Quite handy with the ball at times - on a slow deck can maintain good pressure. Can also drink a few cans quite quickly after scoring a hundred. Photographic evidence can prove this!

THIRD GRADE PLAYER PROFILES

Andrew O'Brien

When not in Fiji, Queensland, Thailand, Melbourne or soon to be New York for work – you get my drift! Obi is always such a dynamic bloke to have in any team. You'd just love him to be there every week. Very much the older brother type to a lot of the guys in the team Obi is much admired. It was a shame it took Andy 15 rounds to figure out he bats better when he puts his contacts in and even managed to snare 2/10 which saw him on a hat-trick in the process.

Luke Reece

An aggregate of 235 @ 21 average does not give a true indication of how good Luke really is. Often let down by poor shot selection or execution, Luke is often the only one who can get him out. Has all the shots but I wouldn't mind seeing him getting rid of that slashing drive outside off which sees him consistently being caught at gully or behind point. Luke has a great cricket mind and a positive attitude - some small adjustments that only he can make will be the difference in playing higher grades more often.

Sam Reece

Quite a handy little keeper with a great batting technique. Reece was involved in a nasty incident when he was hit in the head keeping up to the stumps. He is very young but has shown that he is capable at this grade already. A bit more experience and determination combined with his great work ethic will see him flourish.

Daniel Sams

Patience is the key word here for Flipper. Coming up from 4s Dan took his chance and performed well and consistently. Playing cricket with all of his brothers since I was 10, I know Dan has a massive growth spurt in him soon which will add another great dimension to an already impressive game. Added a superb off-cutter to his repertoire this year and increased his energy at the top of the crease under the guidance of Plant. Also showed plenty of ability with the bat at the top of the order. A top flight player of the future.

Joel Smith

In a year when our bowling depth on paper appeared down on previous years, we definitely needed someone to step up to the mark. Joel was definitely that guy. Joel not only came up from playing fourth grade the year before, to cementing a spot in third grade this year, he also went on to play second grade on more than one occasion. After a few minor tweaks to his run up early on in the year, Joel not only found more endurance, he found more control with the ball and was another player I could rely on to get a wicket before lunch/tea. Well done on a great year.

Matt Smith

It was always going to be a tough year for Matt this year to back up what he done so well the previous year. Although he may not agree, this year was a great year as Matt was able to learn at such a young age just how grounding this game of cricket can be. Although he may not have seen the same successes as the previous season, his 10 wickets @ 34 is still quite handy. Throw in his new found ability to successfully open the batting and you can only imagine how far he might go as he matures.

Derryn Thomas

Only saw Hinchy six times this year with the ball in his hand due to work and family commitments. As a result, was slightly underdone with the ball but still managed to get seven wickets @ 26 average in the times he did play. Also saw a bit of second grade and always manages to get the team laughing in the sheds.

Steve Wise

We didn't see as much of Wisey as we would have liked due to the new addition to the Wise clan half-way through the season. I am completely at ease when Steve is behind the stumps however I think he actually might have a pretty serious claim as an off-spinner if he wasn't such a good a wicketkeeper. There is some food for thought! See you next year, mate!

4TH GRADE

FOURTH GRADE – THE REID CUP AND PLAYER PROFILES

Brad Christensen

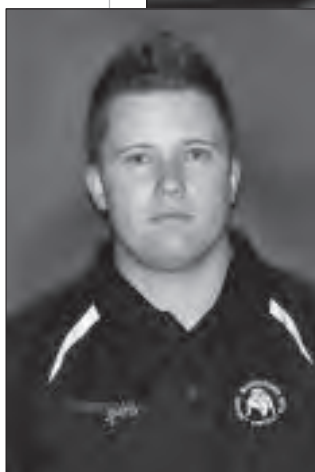

I want to start by congratulating Fairfield-Liverpool for winning The Reid Cup this season.

This season was slightly frustrating season for Fourth Grade, we managed to improve our bowling from last season and win more games, but we still missed out on a place for the finals. While we managed to improve our bowling, our batting regressed as last season we were the best team batting wise, this season we averaged 10 runs less per wicket and our batting directly lead to a few losses. On the positive side our bowling was much better this season with the team going for outright on three occasions.

There were a couple of highlights during the course of the season with Ryan Donovan scoring his first hundred for the club against Parramatta (141no) and Matt Clifton taking his first five wicket haul in grade against Sydney University (5/30). Other than that we only had one player score more than 250 runs and one player take more than 15 wickets, so we definitely have some areas of improvement for next season.

I would like to make special mention of Mark Grant for his help during the course of the season. My wife decided that the cricket season would be the perfect time to get married and Mark thankfully agreed to look after the team in my absence. It is not often that the lower grade players get to play with someone of your experience and I know the team learnt a lot from you that they continued to use throughout the season. Thank you for your help Mark, it was greatly appreciated.

Special thanks must also go to Dave Clifton and Mitch Morley for their tireless effort on match days that certainly made my days a lot easier. Also to all the parents that helped out over the course of the season with drinks, scoring, sightscreens, covers etc, thank you very much.

I cannot thank Eris and Margaret Dignam enough for the help they have provided over the course of the last few seasons. Your help is always appreciated and I am sure that it would have been a lot harder to take on the captaincy without the two of you there.

I would also like to thank the Selection, Cricket and Management Committees for their support and help over the last two seasons, and for giving me the opportunity to captain at a club with such a proud history.

To David Drew and the coaching team, well done on a fantastic first season in charge. We have a great foundation for success going forward and I am sure you will take the club back to where we should be in the coming seasons. The feel around training and pre-season this year was great, and that comes down to the environment that you provide for us all.

Congratulation to Simon Keen on captaining the PG team to the club's first premiership in nearly two decades. It shows the strength in the club that we have such a strong group of players coming through.

And finally, thanks to Ebony Waugh and Natalie Gane for joining me on the club's Social Committee this year. Without your ideas and organisation I don't think any of the events would have happened this year. I know that all of the boys appreciated the events and especially the idea for the cocktail squishy idea.

Brad Christensen

Brad is a really dedicated young clubman and he made giant strides leading Fourth Grade last season with the side still in finals contention up to the last round of competition. Brad also took a leadership role off the field, working with Ebony Waugh and Nat Gane to promote a series of successful social functions. The club needs players with Brad's commitment and skills if we're to thrive in future and Brad should be encouraged to continue his involvement with both our on field and off the field operations. MK

Mitchell Baker

Did not see much of Mitch this year as he quickly went from Fifth Grade to Second Grade. Mitch had a great year and was a deserving recipient of the 'Player's Player Award' at our end of season function. His bowling has come on in leaps and bounds and his batting, especially against UNSW, was at times brutal.

Chris Bennett

Having to have an appendix removed really cost Chris this year, as he was having a really solid year in Fourth Grade and pushing to get a Third Grade spot. Always looking to be involved in every aspect of the game and is someone you want to have in your team for their ability to do things that other cricketers can not. I am sure we will see Chris playing higher grade cricket next year. Averaged 37 with the bat and 19 with the ball.

Steven Burt

An unlucky injury to 'Burta' left him missing a large chunk of the season and forced him to come back into Fourth Grade. Showed what he is capable of (14 wickets @ 20.14), as he stayed with the team in the push to the finals and had a great back end of the season with the Poidevin-Gray side. Hopefully a little luck will go his way next season and he can get back to the level we all know he can play.

Ken Butcher

A frustrating year for Ken which had him starting the season fairly slowly with the bat. A great batsman to watch and capable of a lot more than he has shown in the last couple of seasons, just unlucky to have been floating between the grades and not getting an opportunity to establish himself.

Matt Clifton

Matt had a really good season with the ball and is one of the promising young spinners we have at the club. Averaged under 20 with the ball for his 14 wickets including a five wicket haul against Sydney University. Showed promise with the bat this year, and if his captain didn't run him out in the last round looked certain to show us just what he can do.

Jake Cormack

What a debut year! Turns up to pre-season hoping to maybe get a game with the club and ends up coming second in the 'Player of the Year' award. Played four games in Fourth Grade this year and impressed everyone with his ability and attitude. Looking forward to seeing Jake continue to develop both his batting and bowling in the years to come.

Ryan Donovan

Great to see 'Doons' finally get that big score that has been just around the corner for years now, and he ended the season as our leading run scorer with 254 runs @ 63.5. Hoping to see him come back next season for a full season and see what he can do. Still looking for that sniper that shot him in the hamstring during a game of touch football, anyone with information please contact the club.

Daniel Elliott

After not getting a game last season Daniel made sure that any opportunity he got this year was going to be taken and managed to force his way into fourth grade at the end of the season. Has the ability to do a little with the ball both ways and seemed to improve as the season went on. Improving his fitness for the start of next season will help Daniel to bowl those long spells that are needed as one of the few lower grade bowlers with no age related restrictions.

Pat Henry

Pat came into the team early in the season and made it impossible not to select him from there on in. When he got going was great to watch, including one spell where he nearly bowled a guy by knocking his helmet off with a bouncer. A bit of work on his action during the off-season should allow Pat a little more consistency and a bit more movement. The team's most successful bowler with 16 wickets @ 23.13.

Josh Hilder

Josh started off the season well with the bat nearly batting on his own in Round 2, but unfortunately that was the best we saw from him this year. Really good to watch when he is batting, and showed with some innings in third and fifth grade just what he can do. We just need to see it more regularly.

James Hopkins

Unfortunately I had to play cricket with James again this year, but seeing as though I picked the team I can't complain too much. Started off the season well and quickly moved up to third grade, where he scored a hundred before joining me again for the end of the season. Shot selection let him down at times as he has shown he is a better batsman than fourth grade.

Matt Hopkins

Matt seems to make runs whenever he plays fourth grade and this season was no different. He anchored the innings a couple of times this season and provides a solid foundation to build a total around. Never know what he is going to give you with the ball though, at times he can be devastating.

Tharun Kaliyanda

I guess a good word to describe for Tharun would be enigmatic. Capable of bowling with a bit of pace, good bounce and accuracy should be all the ingredients you need to be a successful bowler, but somehow he just never seemed to take that next step. Hopefully his work and study will allow him to train more regularly going forward and allow him to develop into the bowler he has the ability to become.

Curtis Leman

Another player we did not see much of this year as he quickly went from fifth grade to second grade. Had a good season, but turning some of those starts into bigger scores could have made it great. Unfortunately his back limited his ability to bowl again this year, but hopefully we can have him back on track for next season.

Mark Morley

Mark is another first year player who had a fantastic debut season with the club with a top 10 place in the 'Player of the Year Award'. Solid keeper and batsman with a good eye, hopefully playing a full season this year has helped with his development and we see a lot more of what Mark can do in the future.

Dean Picklum

Dean is a promising young opening batsman who got an opportunity at the start of the season. Showed the potential to develop into a very good batsman, but needs to convert those starts into innings of substance. Next season should show us that as he continues to adjust to senior cricket and what is required at the top of the innings.

Sam Reece

Sam had a season where he was up and down depending on the keepers above him which did not give him the opportunity to settle in any one grade. His work behind the stumps has improved markedly from last season and once he gets his batting to click will score a truck load of runs. Just needs to get that first big score to start it all off.

Daniel Sams

I was looking forward to playing a season of cricket with Daniel this year, but his bowling saw him go to third grade about half way through the season and I never saw him again. Had a slow start to the season with the bat, but we have seen enough of him to know that he has the potential to play higher grade cricket as an all-rounder.

Derryn Thomas

I have always enjoyed playing cricket with Derryn, both for his ability and the fact that he allows me the chance to talk with someone near my own age. Hard to match last season in terms of performance, and limited availability impacted on his ability to get into a rhythm.

Hopefully next season we can see more of Derryn and he performs at the level that he wants for himself. Should enjoy his off-season after receiving some relationship advice from Kenny Butcher.

Also played:

Ryan Beavan, Dean Bush, James Bourne, Ryan Caffrey, Mark Dawes, Luke De Celis, Cameron Dunn, Mark Grant, Tristan Muir, Joel Smith and Islam Zohirul.

5TH GRADE

FIFTH GRADE –THE DAVID SHERWOOD CUP AND PLAYER PROFILES

Geoff Spotswood

Congratulations to Simon Peddle and his Campbelltown-Camden team on winning the competition.

I would like to acknowledge the outstanding performance of our Poidevin-Gray Shield team in their premiership win. The team was well led by captains Simon Keen and Daniel Burns whilst Lance Keen provided strong support as manager.

The club is indebted to Danny Waugh and his first grade team on their excellent season where they were the pace setters throughout the season.

The fifth grade team this season was very young and inexperienced but the potential on show promises a bright and successful future for the club. It was a privilege to journey with these young players this season and to experience their development first hand.

The team gelled well as a unit and enjoyed the experience of grade cricket – for many players this was their first season in grade. Grade cricket can be soul destroying at times when runs and wickets are hard to come by and disappointments can often outnumber the successes. It is a test of a players' character and requires resilience and a desire to keep persevering and working at your game. Life is full of challenges and it's how you deal and learn from them that defines if you've been successful.

The record will show that the team won five of its fifteen games but closer scrutiny tells a different story.

Five losses were very close run things – with only a couple of wickets or a few runs the margin. Against eventual premiers Campbelltown-Camden, the game went down to the wire and only an excellent innings from their captain decided the outcome in their favour.

The strength of the team was the bowling with Luke De Celis taking 35 wickets at 15.9, Daniel Elliott 21 wickets at 15.2 and Ryan Caffrey 20 wickets at 16. Luke consistently bowled the team into a winning position and his 8/44 effort against an experienced Sydney University team was most memorable.

Daniel was our strike force until he was deservedly promoted and Ryan was dangerous with the new ball and improved as the season progressed. Matthew Doab, until unfortunately injured, performed solidly with the ball with 18 wickets at 16.9 as did Jake Cormack with 15 wickets at 22.9 and Geoff Robson with his off-spinners.

The batting was a disappointment with wickets falling regularly which made it difficult to gain momentum and build partnerships. The team scored over 200 runs on only three occasions during the season. No batsman scored over 250 runs and this is an area to focus on next season. There were some excellent individual performances with the bat, but a lack of supporting efforts generally resulted in these efforts being shining lights in mediocre team totals.

Matthew Doab played well early in the season, contributing significantly to three of the team's wins with innings of 53 not out against Penrith, 42 against UNSW and 79 against North Sydney. Other fine performances were recorded by Jake Cormack 41 and 57, Mitch Baker 129 not out, Curtis Leman 41 and 76, Ken Butcher 52, Ryan Donovan 59, Josh Hilder 63 and Mark Morley 53.

The fielding was solid and at times outstanding, with Mark Morley setting a high standard behind the stumps. Mark is to be congratulated on taking the most dismissals in the competition with 25 which included 12 catches and 13 stumpings. Best performed in the field were Geoff Robson, Jake Cormack, Michael Chalita, Ryan Caffrey and Dean Picklum.

The team was well supported by a hardy group of supporters who were there each week to help create a positive team environment. Special thanks go to Mitch Morley who scored for most of the season. My gratitude is also extended to Shane Cormack, Ross and Lisa De Celis, Wally Challita, Angela Morley, Paul and Julia Robson, David and Kay Elliott for their loyal support.

FIFTH GRADE PLAYER PROFILES

David Drew has performed very well in his first season as club coach. David was always available to discuss ways of assisting players with their development and regularly warmed the team up on Saturdays. David was well supported in coaching by Ray Hall, Les Andrews, John Bull and Scott Thompson – and I extend my gratitude for their dedicated efforts. Training was well organised and Eris Dignam and his band of volunteers worked tirelessly with David Drew and the coaches, to ensure the players were able to concentrate on preparing for matches.

The selectors from last season worked very cohesively as a group and many hours were spent in discussions over players. I would like to thank Danny Waugh, Dean Magee, Daniel Moy, Brad Christensen and Mark Grant for their efforts.

The management committee under the astute leadership of president Scott Grant again was the envy of other clubs and their efficiency in dealing with off field matters meant players could focus on playing the game.

The cricket committee (cricket operations) was a vital link between the players and the management committee. Much of their work occurs in the off-season with the evaluation of the past season and the planning for the next season.

Major issues to be dealt with this season were: the first grade incentive payment scheme; coaching and player recruitment; and, captaincy nomination recommendations. I would like to thank Chairman Mark Grant and Chris Gane for their efforts and welcome Darryn Bull to the committee who will replace Chris for the coming season.

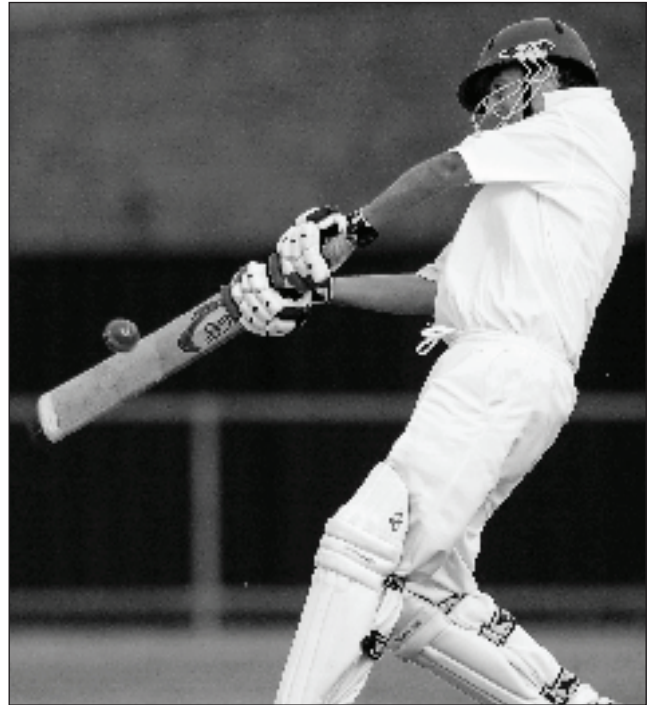

The club is indeed fortunate to have the strong support of Bankstown Council who provides three first-rate fields in Bankstown, Grahame Thomas and Jensen Ovals. The outstanding work of Warwick Starr and his ground staff has given the Bulldog players excellent wickets, outfielders and facilities which are second to none.

Geoff Spotswood.

Geoff took on the fifth grade role at the request of the Committee and as one would expect gave it every effort. Add to the fifth grade captaincy Geoff's commitments as Chairman of Selectors, Chairman of the Cricket Operations Committee and his organisation of the 'Players Reunion' each February and you get some measure of Geoff's tremendous contribution to the club. Geoff kidded and cajoled his young charges along and extracted some promising performances from a number of individuals who will be much better prepared for the challenges of grade cricket next season. MK

Ken Butcher

Ken played some good innings and was promoted to fourth grade during the season. His innings of 52 against Sydney was a match-winner. Ken is technically a fine player who has the potential to be successful in grade cricket. Currently, he gives the bowler too many opportunities to take his wicket.

Ken kept wickets for part of the season and when he relaxed, he performed well. Ken is a fine fieldsman when not wicket-keeping – he is fast across the turf and has a strong throwing arm.

Michael Challita

Michael turned fourteen during the season and played some innings beyond his years. Michael's first innings for the club were 29, 35, 23, 7, 24, 28, 0 and 23. This indicates that as Michael matures and learns how to build an innings, he should establish himself as a future higher grade player. Michael is positive at the crease and loves to attack – which puts bowlers under pressure. He did very well to combine his club, Green Shield and grade commitments and was eager to learn. Michael is also an outstanding slip fieldsman. Michael has a good sense of humour and is contributes positively to team spirit.

Ryan Caffrey

Ryan played most of the season in fifth grade and developed into a fine all-rounder. He is an attacking fast bowler who can achieve late outswing – resulting in early wickets. During the season, Ryan was working at a variety of balls and on occasions could move an off-cutter into the batsman. Ryan was always economical and with an economy rate of 2.2 runs per over, he was able to keep the pressure on the batting team. Ryan has the potential to develop into a good batsman and showed what he capable of in several innings. He is more comfortable off the front foot but I'm sure his back foot repertoire will improve as he is always prepared to listen to the advice of others. A sound fieldsman and good team man.

Jake Cormack

Jake impressed all at pre-season trials with his well flighted leg spinners and technically correct batsmanship. He was another of the Green Shield players who had their first taste of grade cricket this season. Jake played some important innings this season culminating in a fine effort of 57 against Hawkesbury. His legspinners showed a promise of things to come and he deservedly was promoted to fourth grade after a string of sound performances. Jake is an also an excellent fieldsman.

Luke De Celis

Luke had a fantastic season finishing fourth in the overall competition statistics with 35 wickets. He regularly was the team's leading wicket taker and placed pressure on batsmen with his big turning leg spinners and lethal wrong'un. He encouraged many unsuspecting batsmen to leave the safety of their crease with his well-flighted deliveries only to see them stranded with Mark Morley waiting to pounce like a hungry spider devouring an insect which had strayed too far! Luke is another who played junior cricket, Green Shield and grade this season and I look forward to watching his development in the future. Luke played some determined innings during the season and although his defence is sound, the challenge is for him to develop his attacking shots.

Matthew Doab

Matthew performed well with bat and ball at times but consistency eluded him. His dynamic batting was a significant factor in three of the team's wins. Being unable to regularly attend training for a variety of reasons affected Matthew's play. He revelled in teaching his young teammates the virtues of grade cricket and was invaluable in such a young team. Matthew's season was unfortunately cut short through a car accident which could have been much worse. I look forward to having this outstanding clubman fit and rearing to go at the start of next season.

Daniel Elliott

Daniel is a testament to perseverance and dedication. He was one of the success stories of the season and I admire his hunger to perform well. Daniel worked hard with his coaches to refine his bowling action and is always working hard at training. His promotion to fourth grade was a pleasing result for one of the club's great competitors. During the season, Daniel's batting continued to improve and I encourage him to continue to work hard in this area.

Tharun Kaliyanda

It was good to see Tharun return to the club this season. On his day, Tharun is capable of ripping through a batting team, as he showed against Hawkesbury. Unfortunately, irregular training attendance for a variety of reasons hampered his effectiveness. Tharun has the potential to contribute significantly to Bankstown, but he needs to give himself a chance by preparing thoroughly. His batting was solid on occasions and he opened the batting in a few games this season. Tharun is a well-intentioned and enthusiastic team player.

Mark Morley

Mark performed very well in his first season and works hard at his game. His wicket-keeping was very good and as reported earlier he was the leading wicket-keeper in fifth grade with 25 dismissals. Mark developed a good relationship with his spinners and would often conspire with them to exploit a batsman's weakness. His batting was positive and there were signs that a fine all-rounder is in the making. Mark needs to believe in himself a little more and not let disappointments worry him as he has the potential to perform well in the higher grades.

Jeremy Ng

Jeremy has boundless energy and is great to have in the team. He trains hard and encourages his team mates. There were signs that he has potential to perform well in grade cricket, but unfortunately he gave his wicket away too many times to contribute as well as he would have liked. Jeremy must learn from his dismissals this season and work at occupying the crease for longer periods. He is prone to unexplained rashness which inevitably results in losing his wicket. A sound fieldsman and good team man.

Dean Picklum

Dean played his first season of grade and performed well with the bat early in fourth grade. Dean has a sound technique and he should be looking positively toward next season after making a good impression in his first attempt at grade. He needs to work hard at the start of each innings and I'm sure consistent good scores will result. He is a good fieldsman who can also wicket-keep – giving him a couple of strings to his bow.

Geoff Robson

Geoff is another product of the Bankstown junior program and he performed creditably in his first season of grade cricket. A technically-sound top order batsman, Geoff played some important innings where he played sensibly and occupied the crease. When he gets a start, Geoff is a difficult batsman to dismiss and I can see a promising future for this keen young cricketer. Geoff bowled his off-spin to good effect and performed well in one day games where he opened the bowling and took vital early wickets. An outstanding fieldsman, Geoff saved many runs with his excellent work in patrolling of the offside of the wicket.

Islam Zohirul

Islam worked solidly on his batting this season and was rewarded with promotion to fourth grade where he performed creditably. An enthusiastic team man who is always looking at ways to improve his game. Islam has a fine array of attacking shots off the back and front foot but unfortunately a tendency to play a rash shot often meant another promising start was nipped in the bud. Islam needs to occupy the crease for longer periods and give himself a chance to achieve those big scores he craves. He needs to continue to develop his fielding skills.

Thanks also to the following players who represented the club this season in fifth grade: Mitchell Baker, Curtis Leman, Ryan Donovan, Josh Hilder, Lance Keen, Mark Dawes, Howard Grice, Michael Rickert, Nathan Woellner, Luke Field, Daniel Solway and Jarrad Woods.

AW GREEN SHIELD

AW GREEN SHIELD REPORT AND PLAYER PROFILES

Ray Hall

Congratulations to North Sydney on winning the AW Green Shield for the first time, defeating Blacktown on run rate.

While we finished in equal 9th (same as last year), this position genuinely belies the successes of the season. This was the first season for the coaching team after taking over the reins from the highly-successful Ian Gill, so it was all new to nearly everyone - except the four grade players from last season. Thank you to the parents of the players – we had some superb afternoon teas. Thank you to Rob Shaw and David Clifton who provided invaluable assistance during the season as Assistant Coach and Manager, respectively.

It truly was a season of what might have been...

- we beat the team (North Sydney) that won the final – thrashing them by 90 runs – which was their one and only loss of the season (including the final!);
- we lost to the team that finished the rounds undefeated and equal first, with us needing 1 wicket for victory in the 57th over (Fairfield/Liverpool);
- we beat last year's finalists (St. George);
- we lost the last game by 1 run (Mosman);
- we lost to the team that finished 6th by 12 runs (Manly);
- there was only one game where we didn't bat past 56 overs (that game had reduced overs, the other five we batted at least into the 58th over) and that was the only game we got thoroughly beaten (Campbelltown – who continue to cause us problems in Greenies); and,
- we beat the team that finished 7th (Wests). That particular game was why cricket can be such an exciting spectacle and was finished off by two of our youngest players (Jake Cormack and Daniel Solway), who got us home on the last ball of the game. Outstanding effort.

It's very important to note that had we won those three very close games, we would have finished in the top three, with six wins from seven.

There are a number of reasons which could be attributed to the losses, and that is for the coaching staff to consider, then train both existing and future players and hopefully improve on performances next season. In most games, our top order batting let us down by simply not getting enough good starts (almost regardless of the order or the personnel). Our 'tail enders' typically got the bulk of the runs - we were often 7 for 100 at the half-way mark. Only three batsmen scored over 50 runs in any game... Jarrad Woods 64, Mark Morley 59 and Jake Cormack 58no. Overall, our batting simply wasn't good enough.

On the other hand, our bowling, especially our three main pace bowlers (Daniel Sams, Dean Bush and Josh Hilder) was very, very good - taking 35 wickets between them, and beating the bat very frequently. Our four spinners (Matthew Clifton, Jake Cormack, Luke De Celis and Geoff Robson), who had taken 49 grade wickets between them prior to Green Shield (in 3rd, 4th and 5th grades), didn't have the penetration we were hoping for, nor did they fire together on the same day – taking just 18 wickets between them all.

Our fielding was usually outstanding - we rarely dropped catches, took most run outs when we had the chance – either with direct hits or long throws into the gloves – and saved a lot of runs in the outfield with committed attempts at stopping the ball. Some players were simply brilliant in the field, while others do need to lift a bit - more work at training under pressure situations as well as an increase in general fitness will help this.

There was fantastic camaraderie in the team and their parents, which was demonstrated in many small ways throughout the season, culminating in an excellent after-season barbecue – for which Wal Challita and Jim Woods must be thanked again publicly for their outstanding hospitality.

As an aside, congratulations to four of our AW Green Shield players who were invited to try out for NSW U17 City side, based on both Green Shield and Grade performances (Sams, Bush, Clifton and Cormack).

AW GREEN SHIELD PLAYER PROFILES

Dean Bush - captain

Dean, along with Josh Hilder, led the team well, and took on the responsibility that goes with the position. Dean picked up wickets regularly and finished up as our top wicket-taker with 13 – which included an outstanding bowling performance against Fairfield-Liverpool with 6/28. Dean probably didn't perform as well as was hoped for with the bat, although he provided some stability in the middle order.

Josh Hilder - co-captain

Josh responded well to the responsibility handed him, and in doing so, demonstrated future captain potential. Josh generally bowled extremely well, taking 4/26 against Mosman and 3/33 against Wests. Josh came into the batting line up as an opener with a lot of expectation after his previous performances with the willow, but by his own admission, just couldn't get going at all. With a top score of 23, it simply wasn't a true indication of Josh's batting ability.

Michael Challita

Michael was one of the younger players in the squad and showed promise with the bat, with a high score of 34 against Fairfield. With maturity and concentration, Michael will convert his good starts into big scores. Has a big future as a middle order batsman. His slips work is also very good, and is something to keep working on.

Matthew Clifton

As one of the four senior players in the squad, Matt's Green Shield season was well below expectations with both the bat and the ball (in contrast to his bowling in grade). As opener, Matthew had a top score of 27no against St George and a best bowling of 2/32 against Wests. However, his fielding was usually outstanding and often set the standard for the team.

Jake Cormack

Jake was one of the younger players in the team and had an excellent season and was the stand-out performer. He showed maturity beyond his years with the bat – despite batting well down the order – and was our leading run-getter with 182 runs at an excellent average of 60.67 (the only player to average over 30). Jake also performed with the ball, taking 8 wickets at 16.50.

Luke De Celis

Luke also had a lean Green Shield season with the ball, which belies the fact he was the top wicket-taker in the entire club during the main season! While he didn't bat, his outfield throws were excellent. His 4/16 against Campbelltown was one of the few highlights of the day!

Aaron Ford

Aaron had a Green Shield season below his own expectations after some good early performances in the trials. More intense turf-based training will help Aaron develop his batting further.

Matthew Grealy

Matt showed signs of being a very good top-order batsman after a great 44 against North Sydney and a few other solid performances. Batting at 3 or 4, he was often out in the middle a lot earlier than he should have been.

Matthew Lozinski

Matt was the "Bullpup" of the squad (only just) – at just 12 years of age – but showed outstanding commitment at training sessions and all games. He showed what is meant by the "Bulldog Spirit" and was rewarded with game time against Mosman.

Mark Morley

Mark had a very good first season in Green Shield, with a top score of 59 against North Sydney in a display of solid shots along with some of Mark's now-trademark flair. Mark also kept wicket extremely well, finishing 3rd overall in the Green Shield 'keepers with 10 catches and 6 stumpings. His on-field assistance to the captains was well-directed and displayed good cricket knowledge.

Geoff Robson

Geoff also had a lean Green Shield season with the ball, and just found it hard to really penetrate with his off-spin. Geoff batted solidly, earning a well-deserved 26 against Fairfield-Liverpool.

Daniel Sams

One of our most senior players, Daniel opened the bowling and beat the bat more times than runs were scored off him – with an economy rate of 2.18. With 4/23 against St George and 3/22 against Manly, Daniel was always looking for, and very nearly getting, wickets. Daniel's batting didn't really show what he is capable of, but a well-earned 38 not out against St George and 29 against Manly showed some of the ability we know he has.

Daniel Solway

Daniel is another of the young-guns on the way through, and his match-winning performance with Jake against Wests showed he really has what it takes to succeed – mental toughness. With very limited opportunities this season, Daniel will continue to progress his batting and in keeping with the training, effort and commitment he puts in, will do very well.

Jarrad Woods

Jarrad was hoping to do well with bat and ball, after showing plenty of bowling venom early in trials. However, it was the willow that did the talking, with a top score of 64 against Wests, along with 47 against Mosman and 32 versus St George. Jarrad has the strength and ability to really hit the ball hard, and with more turf exposure, should develop into an excellent batsman.

POIDEVIN -GRAY SHIELD

POIDEVIN-GRAY SHIELD REPORT AND PROFILES

Lance Keen

Congratulations to all of the PG boys for a great season in which we won the Poidevin-Gray Shield for the first time in 19 years.

This season's competition was very tough with the make up of the finals going down to run rate. A very important point during the season was that even though we looked and out the attitude always remained one of 'the game is still on - play hard and smart till the final ball, wicket or run'. This was the case in both our losses against Fairfield and Campbelltown. Losing by just 8 and 12 runs respectively.

We finished the regular season in second place and played a home semi-final versus Sydney Uni. The final was played at Grahame Thomas Oval versus Gordon.

At one stage it looked like an early finish with Gordon struggling at 6-60 but to their credit, they rebounded to finish with 9-177 after 50 overs. The Bankstown run chase started badly when captain Simon Keen was run out. However, Anthony Sams and Ryan Beaven ensured we remained firmly in control of the match, as we reached a winning total with six overs in hand.

I would like to thank all the parents for their help during the season. All the scorers did an excellent job – thank you. Your efforts made life so much easier for me.

Finally like to thank the Committee especially, - Scott, Marty, Brian and Eris and Margaret Dignam. Thank you for all your hard work on behalf of the PG team and the club in general.

Simon Keen

Lead the team from the front. Demonstrated excellent leadership and captaincy skills. Always thinking on his feet. His all-round ability was invaluable to the side. His single-handed demolition of Wests was a true highlight. Showed great maturity in the semi to get us home. Will be very much-missed next year.

Ryan Beaven

A gifted player. Away from the grade scene for a couple of years but his skills showed through and it never looked like Ryan had left at all! Played 2nd Grade as a keeper but in the PG's was an asset as a slow bowler and excellent fielder in the ring. Great batting display against Campbelltown.

Daniel Burns

Was joint skipper this season and he employed bold game plans that worked wonders. Either with bat or ball Daniel showed that his game has come a long way. Bowled tightly against all the teams during season but most importantly versus Sydney Uni and this had a huge bearing on us making the Final.

Anthony Sams

The Shane Lee Medal winner with a man of the match performance in the final. Excellent behind the stumps with a few sharp stumpings that were awesome. Anthony's 102 at North Sydney was off about 60 odd balls and an amazing batting display. People are still scared walking through the park next to the oval!

Chris Ridley

Chris's 112 at Mosman was a highlight for the season. Chris was always in the runs during the year. His excellent hands in the field proved a great asset to the side. Also wicket-kept in a match as well just to show his all round ability.

Mitchell Baker

Mitch's debut match against Mosman was one I won't forget. Scoring 34 not out off about 16 balls was a magic start. Mitch was always very vocal and showed that he is very quick in the field. Also his that he is capable of bowling some useful leg-spin. Mitch was rewarded for his efforts with promotion to Second Grade by season's end.

Luke Reece

Bankstown's own Mr Cricket. Luke just loves the game and is a much-improved player. Both sides of his game are coming along nicely. Opened the bowling in a few games and did well. Batted in the top 5 all season and did an excellent job. Luke's 103 not out against Manly was top notch. The six that went over the grandstand was just "unreal"!

Dean Bush

Was the Greenies captain last season but showed that he could mix it with the older boys. Didn't look out of place and was always one of the first picked. With his accurate bowling, he was a danger to opposing players near the end of an innings. Played some good innings with the bat as well. One to watch.

Tristan Muir

A mixed season for Tristan but showed in the end what happens with hard work. Always keeping the team laughing with his sense of humour. Huge knowledge of the game. Gave his all in the field. Look to Tristan to have a bumper season next year.

Steve Burt

Missed the first half of the season with injury. When fit showed great talent, opening the bowling and bowling ten overs straight. His excellent effort in the final saw him vying for the Shane Lee Medal as player of the final after dismissing Gordon's top order in succession. Hard-hitting batsmen in the lower order and can clear the fences.

Matt Smith

Matt had a solid year. On occasions opened the bowling with his off spin. Very gritty batsmen in the lower order. Never gave his wicket away without a fight. Excellent in the field. Can and did field anywhere. Still has years left in PGs.

Joel Smith

A tearaway, fiery opening bowler, who pace belies his small stature. His spell at North Sydney where he terrorised some batsmen was pure GOLD. Joel never let an opening batsmen get on top of him and he wasn't afraid to dig a ball in short – which was good to see from a young quick bowler. Bowled with great control in the semi. Always improving his batting and position in the batting order.

Matthew Hopkins

The quiet one of the side. Matt is a real fighter who won't ever throw in the towel as evidenced in his fighting innings against Fairfield and Campbelltown. Those efforts nearly grabbed victory from jaws of defeat for the side. Excellent hands in the field. Matthew showed that he has the pace to upset a lot of batsmen.

Cameron Dunn

A valued member of the side who played the first half of the season. Knocking over Fairfield's top three batsmen was a highlight of Cameron's campaign. I will always remember the batsmen Cameron bowled at Mosman saying after he was bowled "he's bowling wrong'uns" and the other batsmen replying "I told you that!" That's GOLD!

Curtis Leman

Played a handful of games at the end of the season. Showed glimpses of what is in store for us next year as he is a very bright talent. Very clean hitter of the ball who showed a safe pair of hands in the field. An injury-free off-season and Curtis will be a strong performer in the higher grades.

The ultimate in fine dining, Platform One is set within two Victorian Style carriages, with an extensive menu offering a variety of seafood and modern Australian cuisine.

Greenfield Station Bistro

A train lover's delight – the bistro was designed to resemble a Victorian railway station. Adorned with rare and authentic memorabilia, Greenfield Station Bistro offers a variety of good quality affordable dining options.

La Piazza

Our Italian precinct provides some of the best pizzas in Sydney at Pizzeria Bellocchi plus an a la carte dining menu from the Stuzzichino Restaurant that specialises in Italian tapas, pasta and seafood. With the added attraction of the gelateria, pasticceria and the wine cellar, La Cantina Del Vino, you could be forgiven for thinking you are back in Italy.

Singing Coast

This restaurant specialises in fine Thai and Chinese cuisine. The menu has been carefully selected to reflect the diverse a la carte dishes from across the Asian region. The stone floor and 80 year old mahogany woodwork further capture that special feel of Asia.

Wickcraft Café

The café is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner and on weekends remains open into the wee hours of the morning. A range of gourmet sandwiches, savouries, cooked to order meals, cakes and pastries are available for lunch and dinner, or you can simply relax seated amongst a myriad of trees, sipping a delicious coffee or tea.

HONOUR BOARD AND STATISTICS UPDATE

Highlights from this season's performances include...

Scott Thompson

Scott played the last six matches and took his run tally in all grades to 7921 (passing big brother David 7124) including 6713 in 1st grade. He has now taken 526 wickets in all grades including 489 in 1st grade which is 22 behind record holder Wayne Holdsworth's record of 511.

Danny Waugh

Danny is now on the honour board in both batting categories having scored 5666 in all grades including 3705 in 1st grade.

Mark Grant

Mark is closing in on Dion Bourne's record of 9131 runs in all grades. He has now passed the 9000 mark and is only 105 short of the record. Dion's 1st grade record of 8149 remains unthreatened.

Chris Gane

Chris is now on the honour board having scored 5396 in all grades and with 2038 in 1st grade he should achieve his elevation to that category within two seasons.

Geoff Spotswood

Geoff has now scored 8697 runs in all grades and is now 123 behind Ken Ferris in 3rd place in the record book. He has now also passed the 400 wicket milestone (401).

Andrew O'Brien

By his standards, Andrew had a lean season with the bat and just failed to achieve the 5000 mark finishing on 4900. He did however have a much better season with the ball with a 200% increase in career wickets from 1 to 3.

Daniel Moy

Daniel also just missed the 5000 mark in all grades finishing on 4772.

ICC WOMEN'S WORLD CUP

The club was privileged to host six matches in the inaugural ICC Women's World Cup at Bankstown Memorial Oval during March.

Seven of the eight participating nations played at the ground, in what proved to be a great opportunity to showcase the facilities to the world's best female players along with the media from England, New Zealand, India, Pakistan, Sri Lanka, West Indies, South Africa and Australia.

The players and officials from all countries as well as the umpiring teams were glowing in their praise for the oval which was presented in picture perfect condition by Warwick Starr and his team. A number suggested it was better than their home Test grounds.

Another outstanding performance was that of Bankstown Sports Club's Events Catering Group headed by Dianne Lancaster, who went to amazing lengths to ensure the many and varied dietary requirements of our visitors were met.

Spectator support was varied and very much depended on which countries were playing. With the assistance of Cricket NSW's Community Cricket Department, over forty bus loads of school children attended the Australia versus India match and with the total attendance being in excess of 2000, much colour and excitement was in evidence.

We again place on record our appreciation of the support and assistance we received from both Bankstown City Council and Bankstown Sports Club in the staging of these matches.

OBITUARY

JOHN F. MACKINNON

The club was saddened at the passing of former secretary, John MacKinnon on 26th June 2009 after a brave fight against cancer

After playing lower grades with the old Glebe Cricket Club, John first became involved with the Bulldogs when his son David was selected in the AW Green Shield team in 1972.

He served on the management committee for eleven years continuously from 1974/5 until 1984/5 including two years in the role of secretary in 1975/6 and 1976/7. He was also involved with the selection committee for ten years, including five as chairman.

An engineer by profession, John is survived by his wife of fifty-four years, Olive, their five children and families and a wide circle of friends.

An innings well played.
