vale dion bourne

It is with profound sadness that we advise the passing of Life Member Dion Bourne on 18th June 2013.

Dion was the most prolific first grade run-getter in the history of the Club with an imposing 8149 first grade runs and 9131 runs in all grades.

“Lunch”, as he was affectionately known, did it all for Bankstown, captaining the under 21 Poidevin-Gray side and quickly working his way up to the top grade, which he captained for a record seven successive seasons.

Dion was a hard-hitting opening batsman with a devastating hook shot and his aggressive nature and quick scoring inevitably got the side off to a flying start. His flashing blade enabled him to dominate many of the topline N.S.W. fast bowlers of the day including Australian pace-men Frank Misson, David Renneberg and Gordon Rorke.

At one stage of his illustrious career he was asked if pace worried him and in his own laconic manner replied “No it has never been a concern up until recently when I faced our young pair of fourth grade quicks. They are undoubtedly the fastest bowlers I’ve ever seen and could be anything” Dion was of course referring to the young Bankstown tear-aways, Jeff Thomson and Len Pascoe..

Cricket is more than just a series of statistics but the fact that Dion Bourne won the first grade batting average six times and also the aggregate six times is testimony to his consistency. No batsman in the proud history of the Bulldog Club has won the first grade batting average so many times and only Rod Bower has equalled Dion’s feat of winning the aggregate on six occasions.

In an era when 11 a.m. starts were unheard of and most two day games started at 1 p.m., on uncovered pitches, it is even more impressive to note that five times Dion scored 500 or more runs, and in the 1971-72 season reached the pinnacle when he amassed 812 runs.

In his early days Dion formed a devastating opening combination with Grahame Thomas. Both were ferocious hookers of the ball and they became the scourge of pace bowlers, but an absolute delight to spectators. Dion debuted in Bob Madden’s first grade side in the 1960-61 season and the skipper described him as a solid young opener in the making, and a fine slip fieldsman. “Lunch” consolidated his position in 1961-62 scoring 76 in a great opening stand of 138 with Grahame Thomas against N.Ds. Dion once again combined with Grahame in 1962-63 with a partnership of 197 versus Uni and 147 against Mosman.

The pair were gaining quite a reputation for their opening stands and this was considerably enhanced in 1963-64 when they really cut loose with 156 versus Cumberland, an unfinished 128 run stand against Waverley, 112 versus Paddington, 105 against Norths and 62 against Glebe. Dion notched 516 runs at an average of 43 including a dashing 111 not out against Northern District, his initial top grade ton. A total of 522 runs in 1964-65 was followed by 423 in 1965-66 when he won the aggregate and average for the first time with 30.21.

Dion snared both honours again in 1966-67 with 573 runs at 38.2, but really hit his straps in 1967-68 plundering 752 runs at 47 to comprehensively dominate the batting. Dion’s 162 against Randwick was an absolute gem of power hitting and included 22 boundaries in just 198 minutes at the crease. However, his 119 against Gordon was even more sensational coming in just 91 minutes with 19 fours and 3 massive sixes. Dion scored 459 runs in 1968-69 and won the batting average in 1969-70 with 511 runs at 30.58. Once more in 1970-71 he was a class above the rest of the batsman accumulating 642 runs at 33.78. Again he punished the Gordon attack ruthlessly, thumping 101 in a mere 147 minutes with 11 boundaries.

Captaincy in 1971-72 made Dion even more determined and he amassed 812 runs at 40.60 to win the batting honours in his best season to date. He posted 100 versus Norths, 87 against Petes, 87 versus Randwick, 85 against Manly and an explosive 63 against Sydney in just 60 minutes.

His 500 runs in 1972-73 enabled him to eclipse Bruce Urry's record as the Club's leading run-getter and he improved on this with 414 in 1973-74, 329 in 1974-75, 423 in 1975-76, 227 in 1976-77 and 202 in 1977-78.

In his last couple of seasons Dion unselfishly dropped himself down the order to give the younger players like Steve Small, Bob Vidler and Rod Bower a better go, and in 1978-79 he handed over the reins to Trevor McDonald. Dion elected to play on in John Dunn's seconds but after averaging 34 he was called back up to the top grade and his experience proved invaluable.

"Lunch" spent most of the next two seasons passing on his experience to John Dunn's second grade and eventually hung up the boots at the end of the 1980-81 season. It was a long and distinguished career for the 'Dogs and it was ironic that in retiring he left a vacancy for his nephews Mark and Steve Waugh who both played seconds the next season.

Dion was renowned for his vociferous appealing from all parts of the field but he excelled himself one day against Balmain at Drummoyne. He leapt into the air with great enthusiasm and let out an enormous roar.

Unfortunately, he crashed to the ground in a crumpled heap and had to be helped from the field. It could only happen to Dion, he had torn a calf muscle appealing!

Dion was Honorary Treasurer for a record nineteen seasons, was Chairman of Selectors and a member of the Selection Panel for over ten years. He served several seasons as a NSW Selector and was a member of the BDCC Management Committee for 33 years. He was also appointed as a Director of Bankstown District Sports Club in April 2003.

In 1995 Bankstown City Council named the Bankstown Oval scoreboard the "Dion Bourne" scoreboard.

In April 2013 Bankstown City Council transferred this honour to the new digital scoreboard, the most sophisticated of its type erected at a suburban ground in Australia.

The Bankstown Club and the wider cricket community club extends deepest sympathies to Dion's wife and loving companion Brenda, daughters Jacinth and Cassandra and son James.

president's report

On behalf of the management committee, I want to say thank you to all that contributed to what was a wonderful season. It was clearly a great year. We were 2nd in the club championship, three teams played finals and training attendance and intensity was outstanding. Off the field, we achieved our decade-long dream of opening an indoor cricket and sports centre.

That success doesn't come easily. Before the last ball was bowled in March 2012 of the previous season, key individuals were planning for this season. We were committed to focus on what needed to be done to be better and more competitive in the 2012/2013 season. We were thinking about recruitment, training and the continued development of our younger players.

My message has always been one of continuous improvement in every area of the clubs operations. That doesn't always mean better results. I was inspired recently by the words and deeds of John Longmire Head Coach of the Swans AFL club. The Swans have been involved in the finals 14 times in the past 17 seasons. John said "Success is never a given, that you are never ever entitled to it. Constant high standards, constant hard work, constant improvements are the only keys to success in any field. If there is one secret, it is simply that you have to keep doing things extraordinarily well, to demand consistently high standards all the time." This is John's mantra and it must be ours. We can apply and embed these principles into our own amateur club in relation to attitude, culture and process. No doubt it is hard, but that is what makes success so worthwhile.

We are fortunate to have so many volunteers that contribute across the club, that give their time and commitment unreservedly. We are fortunate to have enduring support from Bankstown City Council and an outstanding partnership with the Bankstown Sports Club. In the Sports Club we have a sponsor, a friend and a leader in the community. This coalition delivers impetus and support for our evolution. We have a legacy of best practice and we have a desire to never leave well enough alone.

Thank you again, for an outstanding year, for your individual contribution and collaboration.

Bring on 2013/14!!

Cheers,

Scott Grant – President BDCC

sixty- second annual report

I have pleasure in presenting the club's Sixty-Second Annual Report and Financial Statement.

In my report last year I wrote that I felt we had all the right elements in place to we perform well in 2012/13 and that we'd need to be very creative at making excuses if we didn't deliver.

So it's great to report that we don't need any creative excuses because we did deliver on our potential with season 2012/13 proving to be successful both on and off the field.

On the field, running second in the Club Championship and having our Second, Third and Fourth Grade teams play in the SCA finals series was a vast improvement on our results in recent seasons.

Off the field, the opening of the John Mackay Sports Centre and the Bankstown Sporting Hall of Fame on 3rd March 2013 was the culmination of more than a decade of effort by club administrators. These facilities set a new benchmark for Grade cricket clubs nationally.

The Club remains indebted to our loyal Patron Daryl Melham MP, the Member for Banks, for his tireless efforts on our behalf in securing the Regional Infrastructure Grant from the Australian Government that made our dream a reality.

Our improved playing performance was underpinned by a committed captaincy group supported by a dedicated coaching team.

Jarrad Burke demonstrated excellent tactical acumen and general leadership skills in his first season leading first grade. The Club received a lot of positive feedback from Umpires about the manner in which he led the side and the positive contributions he made during formal post match meetings. Jarrad is an immensely talented all-rounder with a strong sense of loyalty to his teammates and his Club. He has a keen eye for spotting strengths and weaknesses in players and is a great supporter for giving opportunities to young players.

Dean Magee was at his passionate best in leading Second Grade to a semi-final appearance. Dean was able to get the best out of a side that was big on potential but short on experience. Dean is one of true characters of the Bankstown Club and of Sydney Grade Cricket as a whole. His eats, sleeps (and drinks!) grade cricket. The demands of modern life mean it's rare for grade players to have extended careers – it's even rarer for them to remain competitive in senior grades. Dean has achieved both these feats. Dean has announced his intention to retire from playing and we hope he is able to remain involved with the club so he can share his knowledge and experience with our younger players.

Mat Kelly was joint-winner of the SCA 'Third Grade Captain of the Year' a just reward for leading his side to a minor premiership. A key aspect underpinning Mat's success was his ability to blend experienced players like Mark Grant, Andrew O'Brien and Brad Roworth with a group of promising young players to form a well rounded team capable of playing different styles as circumstances dictated. Mat is a young man of the highest character and a great role model for younger players.

Iain Ridley scored 716 runs at 39.78 and this combined with his decisive on-field leadership was a key factor in Fourth Grade running third in the minor premiership. Iain has much to contribute to the Club whether it is as a team leader or as a specialist batsmen in higher grades. Despite his many duties as team captain Iain is always willing to help with general club administration tasks and the Committee is very grateful for his assistance in this area.

Mat Doab calmly and effectively handled the toughest job at the Club, that being Fifth Grade Captain. Mat got the best from his young players, leading the side to ninth place just one win away from a finals series appearance. Mat can be very proud of the way he supported young spinner David Lozinski who finished 10th in the SCA honour list. A very passionate and committed Bulldog Mat is a terrific role model for our young players both on and off the field.

Jake Cormack and Matthew Hudson skippered our PG and AW Green Shield sides respectively and both showed that have the characteristics to develop into excellent leaders as they progress up the cricket ladder.

Another important element of our improved playing performance was the contribution from our coaching group led by Gary Crowfoot and supported by Dean Burke and Ray Hall. Gary is passionate about players' achieving the highest standards of performance and his enthusiasm and determination to succeed is infectious.

Our Cricket Operations Sub-Committee plays an important role working as a bridge between the players, coaches, selectors and the Management Committee. Mark Grant, Darryn Bull and Byron Hackshall again performed this task efficiently and enthusiastically. This group was heavily involved with both the strategic and operational aspects for the recruitment of our two overseas players Harry Gurney (UK) and Daryl Tuffey (NZ).

The final piece of the playing performance puzzle was provided by Phil Kelly in his role as Chairman of Selectors. Phil's even-handed approach to selections and his focus on clear communication with players was a positive factor in our improved on-field performance. Phil was ably assisted by two enthusiastic roving selectors in John Bull and Mark Condron.

We continue to benefit from the high standard of grounds provided by Head Curator Warwick Starr and his team. Bankstown Memorial was deservedly joint winner of the First Grade Ground of the Year Award while Jensen Oval was second in the Lower Grade Ground of the Year and Grahame Thomas ninth.

Bankstown Sports Women's Cricket Club, under the leadership of Rob Smith, Gary Penman and Justin Newman, had another successful season with First Grade winning an amazing sixth straight premiership. The result was again achieved despite losing a nucleus of experienced players to Women's National League duties throughout the season. Many pundits had written our side off in the Final to the powerful Universities unit, but no one should ever doubt the depth and determination of this outstanding group of players. Kerrie Dick again achieved fantastic press coverage for the side and became the first person to score a match on the new Dion Bourne Digital Scoreboard at Memorial Oval.

The Club's dedicated volunteer group remains our heart and soul. Whether it is helping out with covers on match day, scoring, providing afternoon teas or sitting on a club committee, it is the sum of all these elements, big and small, that makes the Club what it is. It is your efforts that give the Club its good name and allows our Captains and players to focus their attention on performing at their best, because they know off-field matters are in good hands.

While on the topic of volunteering, it's perhaps poignant to reflect that during the last year the Club lost four of its finest servants - Life Members Maurie Lilienthal, Bob Bower, Ian Gorman and Dion Bourne. When I joined the Club it was people like Maurie, Bob and Ian who gave me a sense of the importance of making a contribution beyond the playing arena. I wish all our young players could have known Maurie's passion for the game, Bob's low key, no nonsense approach to solving issues and what an amazing cricketing talent Ian was and just how much he contributed to the playing and social culture of the Club.

On behalf of all players and supporters I'd like to single out the following people for their special and continuing contributions:

Scott Grant continued to lead the club with distinction. Scott is highly respected by our sponsors, community leaders and senior cricket administrators and this reflects very positively on the club as a whole. When operational or sensitive personal issues arise we can always rely on Scott's calm, logical, fair-minded and inclusive approach to ensure we get a common sense solution.

Eris and Margaret Dignam continued their unselfish service to the Club and the Bankstown sporting community in general. Their efforts touch every facet of our operations from book-keeping, practice co-ordination, canteen operations to cleaning! Their efforts supporting women's cricket are also greatly appreciated by the BDSC Women's Club players and Committee. Margaret and Eris are unquestionably two of the greatest contributors in our Club's history.

Brian Freedman has now clocked up over three decades of selfless effort supporting cricket at all levels. A tireless worker for the men's and women's grade clubs, Brian also sits on the SCA Committee of Management and numerous CNSW working parties. Brian has just returned from a trip to the Uganda Cricket Association where he saw first hand the operation of the equipment donation program he initiated within the Club seven years ago. Despite his wonderful contribution to cricket in Australia, it may well be that Brian's most significant legacy for the sport will be the life changing results this program is delivering for tens of thousands of young African kids every year.

MEMORIAL OVAL COMMUNITY SPORTS FACILITIES

The Club is proud to report that on Sunday March 3 2013, in conjunction with our partner organisations, we unveiled a $4.5 million upgrade to the Memorial Park precinct. Two new buildings have been constructed, an indoor sports centre and a media centre, which also houses the Bankstown Sporting Hall of Fame and a state-of-the-art electronic scoreboard.

Memorial Oval, which was built in the early 1920s, has been the proving ground for such local cricketing greats as Steve and Mark Waugh, Jeff Thomson, Len Pascoe, Grahame Thomas and Steve Smith.

Last year, Federal Minister for Infrastructure, Anthony

Albanese, and local MPs Daryl Melham and Jason Clare announced a $2.7 million cash injection for the redevelopment. Tony Stewart the former State Member helped secure grant funding from the State Government and the rest of the money was raised by the Bankstown District Cricket Club, with both Bankstown Sports Club and Revesby Workers Club providing significant financial assistance.

The multipurpose indoor sports complex includes four cricket training nets that can be retracted to allow the centre to be used as a common open space. Within the building there is a gymnasium, training rooms, change rooms and a kitchen. Bankstown Girls High and Bankstown Primary Schools, located within the Memorial Oval precinct, will be using the centre sports activities during school terms.

After due consideration, Bankstown City Council took the decision the new centre should be called the John Mackay Sports Centre, a decision fully supported by this Club. During his time of leadership at Bankstown Sports Club, John was steadfast in ensuring the values espoused by its founders remained front and centre in all its decisions. The City of Bankstown and particularly its sporting communities, continue to be the major beneficiaries of this focus. Of equal importance to the financial support has been the wonderful advice and guidance John has given to sports people and administrators over the years. In our view he is clearly a major reason Bankstown enjoys such a rich sporting history. Between 1985 and 2012, through Bankstown Sports Club, John Mackay OAM, was instrumental in directing over $28 million in financial support to more than 40 local sporting clubs.

The new Sporting Hall of Fame inside the media centre, is a visual educational resource that not only exhibits historical artefacts and memorabilia but most importantly tells the story of more than 130 Bankstown area sporting icons who helped define our nation and our community through sport.

Using touch screens, visitors can explore information on all of the hall of fame's inductees. Among them are newly inducted sporting legends: Hazem El Masri (rugby league), Ian Thorpe (swimming), Don Talbot (swimming coach), Billy 'The Kid' Dib (boxing) and Tony Cronk (Hockeyroos). Earlier hall of fame recipients include greats such as Damian Keogh (basketball), Steve and Chris Mortimer (rugby league), John and Ilsa Konrads (swimming) and, of course, our cricketing heroes.

Among the wonderful collection of sporting memorabilia on display is a cricket bat signed by the Australian cricket team (including Steve and Mark Waugh) and a copy of the score sheet from the day Steve Waugh hit a four off the last ball of the day to make 100 in the Ashes.

The building also contains a meeting space with kitchen facilities that is available for community use or educational purposes and has great views of Memorial Oval.

The new digital scoreboard will be named 'The Dion Bourne Scoreboard' in recognition of Dion's efforts on and off the field over four decades. The state of the art digital board can also be used to support general community events including family movie nights.

Mayor of Bankstown, Clr Khal Asfour, said, "Memorial Oval has played host to many men's and women's international games, Sheffield Shield matches and community events for the NSW Deaf Cricket Association, the Blind Cricket Association, and primary and secondary school sports carnivals.

"This wonderful new facility builds on Bankstown's sporting heritage and creates greater opportunities for the families of Bankstown to play sport and experience all of the highs and lows that come from giving your all."

uganda

some observations from brian freedman's recent visit to uganda

It was Steve Waugh who first said
“ANYONE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE”

The major reasons for accepting the invitation to visit the Uganda Cricket Association (UCA) during May/June 2103 was see to first-hand how the game is being managed and developed in that country, and, to be able to reassure ourselves and our generous donors that the equipment and clothing we have collected and shipped was being properly utilised.

Only a little time of looking, talking and listening was needed to come to the conclusion that with very limited financial resources, the UCA was doing a sterling job in managing and growing the game and that the equipment and clothing that we had shipped was having a much more significant effect than we had ever imagined.

Uganda is a landlocked country bordered by Kenya, Sudan, Congo, Rwanda and Tanzania. While it is a very fertile and pretty country, it is very poor with the average per capita income across the country is estimated to be approximately USD350 per annum.

An example of earning capacities in Kampala is the head groundsman at their main oval earns USD140 per month which makes it easy to understand why cricketers there do not buy many $700 bats.

For a project like this to be effective the three elements of collection, shipping and distribution must all work. Over time the club has refined the publicity and collection aspect, we are blessed to have Bankstown Sports Club support in covering the substantial cost of shipping and the UCA are fastidious in logging every single item we send and then keeping a ledger of its distribution to either their national teams, clubs or schools.

The UCA believe the best way to improve cricket in Uganda is to grow their base. When we commenced this program in 2005/06 there were less than 15,000 cricketers in Uganda, most of whom played with “hand crafted” bats. Their official statistical return to the ICC in 2012 shows that this number has grown to 47,193 with our equipment and clothing being given as the major reason for this expansion. They no longer use “hand crafted’ bats.

As well as blind cricketers, the UCA have instigated participation programs for the physically handicapped, something I am not aware we do in Australia. It is rather inspiring to see people without legs playing the game.

Literally dozens of people thanked me, Bankstown and Australia for what we are doing for them. One comment from the UCA development officer John Trust Mayeku is somewhat sobering;

“You do not realise what a difference you are making to so many peoples’ lives.”

The visit to Uganda coincided with the African Qualifying Tournament for the ICC U/19 World Cup to be held early in 2014. Apart from Uganda countries taking part included Namibia, Zambia, Tanzania, Botswana, Kenya, Nigeria and Sierra Leone. It would be an understatement to say their cricket associations were envious of what we are doing for Ugandan cricket. There is no valid reason why cricket clubs or associations in other Australian states can not adopt one of these countries as we have adopted Uganda.

For the record, we are well on our way to filling a 7th container.

This year marked the 30th year of this great competition. The winner is decided by each of the six teams awarding 3, 2 and 1 point(s) to the best contributors in each match with a batting bonus point being earned for scoring 50 with a further point for every 25 thereafter.

Bowlers and wicketkeepers earn a bonus point for taking three wickets or dismissals with an additional point awarded for each further wicket and each team decides a fielding point for each match.

As well as receiving a most prestigious trophy, the winner also receives a substantial cash award. A feature of this season's competition was the strong showing by the younger brigade which augers well for the future.

The leader's points after the conclusion of round 10 were:

27 WELLS
20 JAMIESON
18 REECE, CONDRON, D.LOZINSKI
17 HARDING
16 MORLEY
15 GRANT, McANDREW, TUFFEY
14 PATTERSON, CHALLITA,
13 BUSH, KELLY

After 15 rounds the top five were:

5th place on 24 points: Iain Ridley

Leading from the front is what inspiring captains do and this is what Iain did with great aplomb. His form post Christmas was truly outstanding evidenced by his 716 runs at 39.78.

4th place on 26 points: Nathan McAndrew

Nathan had a cracker initial season in Sydney grade cricket and clearly indicated he has both the ability and attitude to go a long way in the game. It is expected that Nathan's name will appear on the Player of the Year leaders board many times in the future.

3rd place on 31 points: Andrew Jamieson

Another fantastic year for the ever popular Jammo. His 37 wickets at 15.59 including 5 wickets in an innings on 5 occasions in only 12 matches is an absolute testament to his leadership role of the 2nd grade attack.

2nd place on 32 points: Mark Morley

For a 19 year old to currently hold three club records would have to be a record in itself. Mark's continued development as a cricketer is equally matched by the development of both his on field and off field leadership qualities. Congratulations Mark, you have much to be proud of.

Philip Wells

1st place on 34 points

Phil started the season with a bang and although Mark Morley and Andrew Jamieson pushed him very hard at the end, he headed the table from start to finish. His obvious talent is equally matched by his attitude and approach to training – which was evidenced on numerous occasions by the screamers he took in the gully. Congratulations Phil, a richly deserved winner.

Firstly, I would like to congratulate the St George Club on winning the first grade premierships and also taking out the club championship this year. In my opinion this is the ultimate achievement and is something that all clubs aspire to at the start of each season.

I would also like to congratulate every player that represented the Bulldogs this year. As a club I feel we made some really good progress and turned the corner in a lot of areas. We are starting to see some really good results from our younger players which was evident at the back end of the season when we featured in three major semi-finals in 2nd grade, 3rd grade and 4th grade. Unfortunately we were unable to take out any silverware but I am sure it is not far away if we retain the work ethic, enthusiasm and competitive spirit that we displayed as a club this year. If each and every player can play their part in continuing to drive the culture we are trying to build at the club there will be lots of exciting times ahead.

From a First Grade point of view although we were unable to participate in finals cricket I am proud of the way the boys carried themselves this year. As first grade cricketers it is our responsibility to lead the way and be role models at training for our younger players and I cannot fault the application the boys showed towards their preparation. We have some really talented cricketers in our side and I believe that the only thing holding us back from achieving our goals in the near future is a self-belief and the ability to get across the line in closely contested matches through a strong mental approach and really wanting to be in the contest at all times. This is something that we can all focus on during the pre-season to ensure that when we face these challenges next year we are better prepared to rise to the challenge.

We had some fantastic individual performances this year. Phil Wells had an outstanding year scoring almost 800 runs. Phil was the leading run scorer in Sydney during the regular season which is an outstanding effort and was rewarded with the Bankstown Sports Club Player of the Year award in which he thoroughly deserved. Chris Small also had a solid year with the bat scoring 500 runs at the top of the order. Alex Paterson in his first year in Sydney took 28 wickets including some big scalps throughout the year including Simon Katich.

We also had the combined services of Daryl Tuffey and Harry Gurney. The contribution that these guys made to our side both on and off the field was a real highlight of our year. They took in excess of 50 wickets between them which was a huge part of a lot of our wins as a team, just as importantly the impact they both had on our bowling group was outstanding. They shared lots of knowledge and experience and always displayed a professional approach which really rubbed off on the rest of the bowlers. Mitchell Phelps also had a great year with 29 wickets and proved that he has what it takes to succeed at 1st grade level. I was also really pleased with the progress of our young talent in the side. Jake Cormack proved that he is a player of the future with some really good innings throughout the year he was also rewarded with selection in the NSW U/19 team. I am looking forward to watching him develop this year with added responsibility and opportunity. Luke Reece and

Nick Carruthers also showed glimpses of what they are capable of and with added self-belief can both become really consistent 1st grade batsman.

There are many people that I would like to thank for the support that they have given me in my first season as 1st grade captain. I really appreciate the faith shown in me by the committee and management team, being the 1st grade captain at a club like Bankstown is a real privilege and something that I will never take for granted and is one of the highlights of my cricket career to date. Being a part of the leadership structure at the club has given me a real insight into the work that goes in behind the scenes to ensure that we as players are getting the best opportunity to perform. Our committee and management team at this club are second to none and we have the best volunteers in Sydney and now the best facilities, which is testament to all involved in the opening of the new state of the art indoor centre. We must not forget the support we receive from Bankstown City Council and our major sponsor the Bankstown Sports Club, without these two organisations on board we would not be half of the club that we are today.

To Gary Crowfoot who I have worked closely with during the year, thank you for the commitment that you have showed and all of the support you have given me this year. Your passion and work ethic is rubbing off on the playing group. Along with the rest of your coaching staff you guys have been an integral part of the improvements that we have made as a club through our performances on field.

To Phil Kelly and his team and the other four captains thank you also for your support - I think as a group we have always made decisions based on the best interests of the club and the players and have created opportunities for players to progress through their on field performances and also created a pathway for younger players to progress. It was a pleasure working with you all this year.

To Ken 'Emu' Hall you are a legend mate and we love having you as part of our team, your attitude is infectious and what you bring to our team is priceless in regards to your experience and knowledge of the game. The boys really appreciate your work even after you tried to poison us at Easts by filling our water bottles with toilet water. One of your best!

To James Allsopp thank you for your support on and off the field, you have been a role model and leader of the club for many years now and I appreciated your advice and calming influence around the change rooms during my first year as skipper.

Geoff Price our Scorer gave up his Saturdays to score for us which is much appreciated. Jeff is a great clubman and to dedicate his time to the club without having a son involved just proves how much the club means to him. Thank you for your efforts this year Jeff - it is great having you around.

Thanks also to Margaret and Eris and everyone involved in the operations on game days. It makes things really easy for us as players to turn up on a Saturday knowing that the only thing that we need to worry about is playing cricket.

I am sure that there are people that I have missed who have contributed to our team and club in the season just gone, so I would like to extend my thanks to all involved in making Bankstown Cricket Club the best of them all. I am looking forward to leading the boys into battle again in 2013 -14 and am hoping that we can reward you all with the silverware in the cabinet that we all desire!

Up the Dogs.

PLAYER PROFILES

Nick Carruthers

2012-13 was a bit of a disappointing year for Nick personally with the bat. He is a player with enormous talent which he showed glimpses of this year with two scores around the 90s against Sydney & Sutherland. These were both high class innings which we know he is capable of. Nick's biggest challenge ahead is finding his game to help him become a more consistent player. With a bit more self-belief and better shot selection I am sure Nick can achieve the results that he expects of himself. Nick is a great trainer and always a good team man.

Chris Small

Smally had a pretty solid year with the bat, at the start of the year he took on the role of opening the batting and became the rock at the top of the order for us. Chris has a really good temperament and can be counted on in tough conditions, which is a great trait for an opener. Small's has decided to take a break from cricket for the coming season but we hope to see him back in the Blue and White in the near future. Thanks for your contribution Smally, we wish you all the best for your future endeavours.

Phil Wells

Wellsy had an outstanding year with the bat scoring 791 runs at an average of 56! He was the backbone of our batting all year and played some really classy innings. The key to his game this year was his consistency. During the season he made five fifties and two hundreds. Phil is the type of player that you love to have in your team due to his all-round capabilities. He is a brilliant fieldsman and can change a game with bat, ball or in the field. Phil also developed some handy off spinners last year due to his hard work in the nets. I have no doubt that Wellsy is capable of playing at the next level and I am tipping that it will be sooner rather than later. Congratulations on an outstanding year mate.

Luke Reece

Reecy is proof that hard work and persistence pays off. He was selected in Two's at the start of the year and was probably off the radar a bit but within a few games Luke had performed well and forced his way into the 1st grade side. From there he continued to improve his game and become one of our most consistent batsman averaging 32 which is a good effort in your first full year in the top grade. If Luke continues to work hard and believes in himself he can become a dominant batsman at 1st grade level. Reecey is also probably the most improved fieldsman in our club which is a credit to the way he applies himself to his game. Congrats on a good year mate.

Jake Cormack

Jake has really started mature into the player that we all know he can be this year. He played some really good innings and proved that he is ready to become a dominant 1st grade Batsman. The two 80's he made this year were high class. Jake has expressed the desire to bat higher in the order and I feel he is ready for this challenge and look forward to seeing him take his game to the next level in the coming season. Jake is also a dynamic fieldsman and along with Wellsy led the way in this department for us.

James Allsopp

Prince had another really good year for us with the gloves. He remains as one of the best gloveman in the competition. James probably didn't achieve his goals with the bat this year but made some handy contributions during the season. He is a great man to have around the team as he is a good motivator and tactician. Prince also has great work ethic when it comes to his training and is a great role model for our younger players. Thanks for your support this year mate; I enjoyed standing at slip next to you.

Mitchell Phelps

Phelps can be pleased with what he achieved this year. He was one of our most improved players. Mitch bowled some really quick spells and there were some quality players from around Sydney commenting that the can bowl a 'heavy' ball. Mitch showed good aggression this year with the ability to bowl a really good bouncer. I encourage him to continue to back himself and hit the deck hard. Phelps would probably agree that he needs to work a bit harder on bowling in One Day and T20 cricket. This is an area that he can improve to ensure that he is effective in all forms of the game. Congrats on a good year mate.

Alex Patterson

Patto can be really proud of his achievements in his first year in Sydney - 28 wickets is a terrific effort. Alex always wore his heart on his sleeve and never shirked responsibility. He is the type of bowler that a captain loves in his team as he just keeps coming. He would usually find himself bowling into the wind due to Daryl and Harry being in the team but he always took it in his stride and gave 100%. Alex's main focus moving forward will be his ability to get the most out of bowling with the old ball. At times this year he struggled with the old ball but this is something he can work on to become a more all-round quick. Pat is a great team man and a very popular member of the side.

Daryl Tuffey

It was a real privilege to have a player and a bloke of the calibre of Daryl Tuffey in our side this year. His contribution to our side was enormous, not just through the wickets he took, but his professional approach and attitude towards the game. His 8-36 against Randwick demonstrated the class he possesses with the ball in-hand. We look forward to Daryl's continued involvement in our club in the coming year. I am sure our young players will really benefit from having him around the place.

Harry Gurney

Harry was another great addition to our side this year. He took 27 wickets in 8 matches including 3 five fa's in a row and led our attack whilst he was with us. Like Daryl, Harry also brought with a great deal of professionalism which he passed onto our younger bowlers. He has a great work ethic at training and was willing to share ideas with the rest of the bowling group. Harry also adopted a side kick in Patto whilst at the club. We wish him all the best in his UK first class career.

Ben Smith

Benny probably didn't have the year that he hoped for this season but showed that he has the talent to succeed at 1st grade level. He has shots all around the wicket and can change a game with his clean striking. If Ben can work hard in the off season on his shot selection and tightening his technique I am sure he will be a big part of what we do moving forward. I look forward to seeing him fulfil his potential in the next year or two.

Nathan McAndrew

Macca was another great addition to our club this year. He only featured in a few first grade games but proved he has a big future in the top grade moving forward. He bowled some really good spells for us in One Day cricket.

Jarrad Burke

Jarrad led the side with a real sense of purpose in his first year at the helm. Apart from his outstanding talents as an all-rounder, Jarrad has the rare ability to read the ebb and flow of a game and look for technical weaknesses in opposing players, a quality he put to good effect in leading the side. The Club received very positive feedback from officiating umpires throughout the season regarding Jarrad's contributions to post match de-briefings and this is very good for the Club's reputation. (MK)

Andrew Jamieson, Ryan Beavan & Daniel Harding also made their debuts in 1st grade this year through strong performances in 2nd grade and I thank them for their contribution this year.

Congratulations to Sydney University on winning the Albert Cup. Second Grade began the season slowly losing two of the first three games but the side only lost two further matches during the competition proper. After performing consistently to finish the minor premiership in second place, the side under-performed in the hot-house that is final cricket, losing to Randwick-Petersham in the qualifying final and Parramatta in the semi-final.

While consistent performances from Dean Magee, Andrew Jamieson and Nathan McAndrew underpinned the side's success, all players showed dogged fighting qualities at different times during the season to resurrect the side's fortunes. Typical of this was Ashley Paddison's fighting innings of 66 in the semi final against Parramatta and Ryan Beaven's 110 not out against UNSW in Round 12.

The side was well served by Captains James Bourne and Dean Magee. James led the side for the first four rounds and he unselfishly handed the reins to Dean when he felt his form and work commitments meant he couldn't do justice to the role. Making this transition with no fuss and the Club's best interests at heart is typical of the character of this fine Clubman.

Dean led the side with his renowned passion and tactical guile and he has provided a legacy for his young charges that will be of great benefit to them as they set about establishing higher-grade positions.

The side was well served by a fabulous band of volunteers and supporters. A huge thank-you to all the mums, wives and girlfriends for providing such mouth watering afternoon teas. You have upheld the Club's proud reputation in this area and perhaps enhanced it.

Eris and Margaret Dignam were always on-hand at Memorial Oval to solve any problems and generally make sure the players were looked after. A special thank-you to Pat Bush, Kerry Smith and Maryanne Burns for your assistance with canteen duties and hosting afternoon teas. Our scorer Alex Smith was efficient and easy to work with and the way he picked up requirements of scoring on the new Dion Bourne Digital Scoreboard was a huge bonus. Thanks Alex.

Overall a second placing in the minor premiership and a semi-final appearance was a solid effort for this side but there will always be that lingering feeling of 'what if' having come so close to a final appearance.

PLAYER PROFILES

Ryan Beaven

Ryan has a very season with the bat and the gloves. With an aggregate of 397 @ 39.7, Ryan showed that he has what it takes to be a quality keeper-batsman at this level. Ryan's batting improved as the season went on and a key component of this success was better shot selection. His 110 not out against UNSW was an outstanding effort displaying great maturity. Joined the list of First Grade capped players with his deserved selection in the top grade against Manly.

Daniel Solway

By his own high standards, Daniel had a disappointing start to the season but later in the season we saw a return to the type of form we've come to expect from this promising young player. Daniel's fielding was of the highest order especially his catching in the cordon. Daniel has worked hard at strengthening his leg side technique and this is bound to pay dividends next season. It is this type of dedication to improving his game that makes Daniel such an exciting prospect for the future.

Tim Burns

Tim had a slightly up and down season and at times showed glimpses of the talent we know he possesses. Tim started the season with a bang scoring a wonderful 112 not out against Hawkesbury at Jensen Oval. He finished the year with 316 @ 28.7, a solid result but only an inkling of what he is capable of. His off-season stint in the UK will hopefully sharpen his skills and we will see him challenging for a spot in the top grade.

Nathan McAndrew

In his first season with the club, Nathan displayed an all-round talent that showed he has the potential to play first grade for many years to come. Nathan scored 285 @ 47.5 with his 101 not out against Sutherland at Memorial Oval a great example of mixing application with aggression to good effect. Combined with his 27 wickets @ 19.6 shows what a big influence Nathan had on the sides' overall performance last season.

Ashley Paddison

Ashley came into the side in Round 4 to improve the side's spin bowling attack and he showed consistent improvement in this discipline throughout the season. Batting lower in the order Ashley showed the value of a good technique combined with a strong determination to place a high price on his wicket. This was never more evident than in the semi-final against Parramatta when Ashley showed he also has an excellent temperament top scoring with 66 after the side was in desperate trouble early in its innings. A promising young all-rounder.

Chris Williams

Chris was in his first season with the 'Dogs after joining us from Sutherland. Chris got the side away to solid starts on many occasions but was not able to turn his starts into big scores. Chris has a proven track record at this level and with the right off-season preparation there is no doubt he can be a great asset for the club in 2013/14.

Luke Reece

Luke played a handful of games in 2nds before deservedly being promoted to First Grade where he made a great fist of the vital number three batting slot. Not expected to be seen in 2s again!

Daniel Harding

Daniel is a high quality all-rounder and his season was split between the top two grades and a spell on the sidelines due to injury. His experience together with his undoubted ability proved to be an asset for the side as his batting average of 69.33 and his bowling average of 10.53 attests.

Ben Smith

Ben played six games in 2nds finishing the season back in the top grade. His innings of 94 at Memorial Oval was a dominant performance at the top of the order and showed what a talent he is. Ben is one of the crop of young players we will be looking to take the club forward in coming seasons

Matt Smith

Matt found wickets hard to come by last season but bowled with great economy particularly in Limited Overs matches. Played some very important innings in the lower order often helping the side to achieve respectable totals after being in trouble. A valued team man who plays with great enthusiasm.

Andrew Jamieson

Andrew had another sterling season as his 37 wickets at 15.5, including five 5 wicket hauls, shows. Jamo was always the go to man when a wicket was required and he was never found wanting. The fact Andrew's season was restricted through work and other commitments suggest his figures would have been in record-breaking territory had he played all games. An excellent club man who is a great role model for our younger players.

Byron Hackshall

Byron had a frustrating season missing a lot of cricket due to a nagging injury. Byron's commitment to his cricket and the Club in general are well known and appreciated by everyone and it's hoped this talented all-rounder will be able to bounce back to his previous levels of performance in 2013/14.

Dean Bush

Dean shared the new ball with Andrew and showed he has the great attribute of being able to swing the ball. His 31 wickets at 31.7 is testimony of his continued improvement at this level. Played some handy knocks lower in the order with his lusty hitting.

Mark Morley

Mark was rewarded with a place in 2nds following his record-breaking performances in 3rd Grade. From limited opportunities he showed enough to confirm he has the ability to play in the top grades. Mark has returned to the Parley Club in the UK for another off-season stint and we expect he will emerge as an even more valuable player in 2013/14.

Dean Magee

Dean was at his passionate best in leading Second Grade to a semi-final appearance. Dean was able to get the best out of a side that was big on potential but lacked experience. Dean's 438 runs at 29 average and 98.9 strike rate was a solid effort winning the batting aggregate. His personal figures however need to be viewed in the context that he often put his own preferences regarding batting position to one side to allow younger players the opportunity to take on more responsibility. We hope Dean will continue his involvement with the club as he has much to contribute. (MK)

Thanks also to the following players who contributed to the teams success in 2012/13 – James Bourne, Darryn Bull, Brendon Small, Ethan Leten, Ayden Brown, Matthew Clifton, Harrison Dean and Jake Grove.

Congratulations to Ed Howitt and the Gordon team for winning the Mitchell Cup. Our season was fantastic up until the finals series. We dominated the competition winning 11, losing 3 and drawing 1 of our matches. This season saw a well-balanced team consisting of some old heads with quality experience along with some seriously talented young cricketers.

This season saw 4 of our batsman within the top 15 run scorers in the competition. Mark Morley, Mark Grant, Ethan Leten and Matt Clifton. Add in to the mix the class of batsman like Andrew O'Brien and Brad Roworth, our batsman certainly laid the platform for our successful season.

Winning the close games is a sign of a quality team and close fought wins against Sydney, Easts and Mosman were vital in obtaining our minor premierships status. Batsman scored runs and bowlers took wickets at the right times throughout the season. A strong team morale and belief in each other saw us reach the top of the ladder.

Momentum was everything and was going in the right direction for the most part of the season until injuries hit us hard at the wrong time of the year. Instead of sprinting to the finish line we ended up limping there – and with that were still only inches away from a grand final appearance. Losing key players and having players at less-than-full fitness at the back end of the year definitely wasn't ideal, but no one could doubt our effort or commitment.

As captain of the side, I was extremely proud of the way the side played throughout the year. This season saw several young cricketers progress and earn promotion and experience at the next level. Our younger team members received outstanding guidance and tutelage from the leadership group within the side – a framework for success. Plant, Rowie and Obie's influence around the team was a big help to me. Our young players had plenty of guidance and direction as a result. Thanks to each of you for all your support throughout the year.

We certainly had the best support of any other team we played throughout the year and this aspect cannot be underestimated in our success. Whether it be scoring, taking covers off, making delicious afternoon teas, the mums, dads, brothers, wives, girlfriends - too many to name you all but particular thanks to the Cliftons, Roworths, Smiths, Browns, Morleys, Nick Dean and Robbo senior. Thanks for all your help throughout the year, your help makes a big difference.

To our groundsman Nick Mamounis and his staff thanks again for producing a terrific wicket and outfield week in week out. Jensen Oval is one of the best lower grade grounds going around and this is largely due to your continuous hard work and dedication. Thanks again Nick, the club is lucky to have you.

To the chairman of selectors Phil Kelly, roving selectors John Bull and Mark Condron, and other captains, thanks for all your assistance throughout the year. We worked together as a strong team and as a result saw the club move up to 2nd in the club championship and have three sides play semi finals cricket - enough said!

To the coaches Crowie, Burkey and Hally, thanks for your efforts again this season. Now we have a great coaching structure as well as a top notch new indoor facility to go with it. The club is really heading a strong direction.

To the committee, thank you for giving me the honour of leading the 3rd grade side again. It is a real privilege to play for such a great club with a strong history, tradition and success. Hopefully this year we can see continued progression for our players along with further success.

To my wife Shabina thanks for putting up with all the phone calls, late nights and the drives out to Bankstown to hand me the scorebook when I left it at home (when 8 months pregnant). Couldn't do it without you and Harlem's support.

Bring on 2013-14 Dogs!

PLAYER PROFILES

Mark Grant

Plant adds a wealth of experience to the side and he contributed greatly to the success of the side. Batting at a much more effective position at number 3, Plant was able to guide young batsman in our side about how to apply themselves at the crease and build an innings. Scoring 426 runs at 42.6 including five 50s, Plant showed that he is still a class act with the bat and featured in several significant innings – none more so than his match-winning 56n.o. in round 10 against Easts – getting us over the line in the last over of the day, as cool as a cucumber. Unfortunately, an unlucky injury to his finger sustained in round 14 saw Plant's season come to a premature end and this proved to be a major blow to our finals campaign. Plant's support of all players cannot be underestimated and I know all that played with you this year were very grateful for your guidance, knowledge and encouragement. I look forward to seeing you back in round one next season, so that we can continue the development of our younger players.

Brad Roworth

Rowie added a great deal to our side this season. His experience and knowledge was a great help to me as well as the rest of the team. The young guys in our team really looked up to him, but knew they would get a spray if they deserved it. A class act with the ball, swinging it too much most of time for the batsman to get near it. His early season bowling form was promising with a 3 wicket haul in round 1 and an inspired spell of 4 for 77 against Sydney in round 5 – which played a crucial role for our victory in that match. Unfortunately Rowie's season was plagued by a re-occurring shoulder injury that prevented him bowling the overs I know he desperately wanted to bowl. His batting was at times majestic. He executes his cover drives with excellent timing and he is always entertaining while at the crease. A top score of 55 against Northern Districts and a 45 in round 2 against competition winners Gordon on a difficult track were highlights. Rowie missed several games due to injury before courageously returning to the side for round 15 and then played the finals with a busted shoulder. I know Rowie was disappointed in the way he finished the season, but it certainly couldn't be put down to lack of effort or desire – a quality that rubbed off on the rest of the team. Thanks for your leadership and support this year mate, I hope you can return next season bigger and better and injury-free as you have plenty more runs and wickets in you and are a terrific clubman.

Andy O'Brien

Obie is all class on and off the field and has been so for many years with the club. 334 runs at 30 including a superb 118 against Fairfield in round 9, and a match-winning 49n.o. against Sydney in round 5 with a busted hand, set up a win for the side, being the highlights. His positive influence on the side along with the guidance he provided to younger players was immense. Unfortunately a broken hand sustained in the field in the qualifying final against Sydney University saw him miss out on the semi final and this proved another major blow to our finals campaign. It was a pleasure playing with you again mate. You possess all the qualities of a great Bulldog Clubman and I really appreciate the leadership you offered the side and your support to me.

Matthew Clifton

Matt had a successful season, one he should be proud of. Just missing out on a spot in the side at the start of season, he took his chance in round 3 when brought into the side scoring 111n.o. in a hard-fought knock. Matt continued his fine form during the first half of the season with a score of 98n.o. against Campbelltown in round 6 – sharing a record-breaking 218 run 3rd-wicket partnership with Mark Morley in searing heat. Cliffo certainly gave his all during this innings, like always, with him having to be hospitalised and on a drip immediately after. Matt would be disappointed with his second half of the season where he was seen to frequently make starts, but fail to capitalise. Continued work on rotating the ball and accumulating singles will see Matt return big scores more frequently. Matt is an energetic fielder who never gives anything less than 100 per cent. His approach to training is outstanding and to be commended. If he continues to work hard like he has done, Matt can progress further in the coming season.

Ethen Leten

Ethan is an enigmatic sportsman. I think you could throw him into any sport and he would demonstrate a high skill level. In terms of his season this year, Eth started the year strongly with scores of 60, 87 and 70 in the first half of the season. In each of these innings, he looked like he could have gone on and scored effortless centuries, however, he found ways to get out. An opportunity in second grade showed Ethan what he now has to do to become a regular member of the 2nd grade side, something that he is more than capable of doing. A terrific 80 in the quarter final against Sydney Uni – including a four-wicket haul – should give this talented cricketer good confidence for the coming season. Ethan's ability in the field is a real asset to any side. Eth became a much more mature cricketer towards the end of the season and a pleasure to have in the side. Keep training hard mate on all aspects of your game (yes, your bowling as well) stay mentally strong and higher grades await.

Harry Dean

Harry has undertaken the hardest art in cricket – leg spin bowling. A discipline that requires a lot of patience, desire and ability. Harry has shown me in the past three seasons he has the desire and ability. Once Harry learns to slow down and work to a plan with patience and thought, there will be no stopping him. This season was a disappointing one for a player of so much talent and promise. Hardly embarrassing statistics by any means, though not up to the standard Harry is accustomed to. With a best bowling performance of 3-21 in round 1 against Hawkesbury, Harry struggled with consistency with the ball and not being able to apply enough pressure on batsman – with too many 'loose' balls being delivered. Harry is a hard trainer who probably sends down more balls at training than anyone. I would like to see more quality rather than quantity from Haz at training by practising bowling to plans and getting that stock ball finely tuned. A more-than-capable batsman, who featured in several impressive knocks this season. With an impressive average of 30, we should see Harry bumped up the order in the coming season as he is now considered a genuine all-rounder. An excellent fielder and good team man, thanks for the year mate, I predict a big season in 2013/14.

Mark Morley

"Is that Mark Morley bloke playing today" was a comment said to me by opposing players on more than one occasion this year and rightly so. 640 runs at 64 with innings of 154 vs Campbelltown in round 6 and 203n.o. vs Sutherland in round 14 saw a cricketer of immense talent come of age. Mark's return from a stint in England saw a much more mature and complete batsman. Under the tutelage of Plant, Mark learnt how to build an innings and then show ruthlessness towards opposing sides by dominating attacks. The only disappointing part of Mark's season was that after earning a much deserved promotion to 2nd grade, Mark was relegated back to 3s from not scoring the runs he would have liked in 2nd grade. Self-belief is all that Mark needs to be successful in higher grades – as he is more than ready. A keeper/batsman at the beginning of the year, a batting all-rounder by the end. Mark showed great skill with the ball this year and proved a vital cog in our bowling department – often picking up the 'big' wicket for the side. Hands like buckets and fantastic cricket brain. Thanks for the year mate; you are a very humble bloke and a great Bulldog!

Geoff Robson

Robbo took 11 wickets at a touch under 34, including a 4 for 24 haul against Fairfield Liverpool in round 9. Robbo is a young off-spinner who can give the ball a good rip. This season Robbo's consistency was what let him down, not being able to build enough pressure on batsmen. Robbo is a much more dangerous bowler when he is spinning the ball 'up' rather than dragging it down at a flat trajectory. He is a hard trainer who, a lot like Harry, needs to think more about what he is trying to do to be able to improve and progress. A handy batsman who didn't show what he is capable

Mitch Baker

Bakes is a popular clubman and for good reason. A fit, enthusiastic team member who wears the Bulldog colours with pride. Finishing the season in 4th grade after finishing in 2nd grade the year before would have frustrated Bakes. Knowing his ability and his exemplary approach to training, a rapid progression on the back of some consistent big scores can see Bakes get back to where he wants to be. A solid start to the season saw Bakes score 54 in round 1 vs Hawkesbury. A broken thumb sustained in a training match courtesy of a Cameron Nupier thunderbolt put Bakes out of action for rounds 4, 5 and 6. Upon his return to the side, Bakes played a different role – batting in the middle order at times, with a best of 62 at number 6 in round 9 vs Fairfield. A tough fieldsman who always puts his body on the line for his side. A tough selection saw Bakes finish the year in 4s as previously stated, but he is a player capable of making big scores – this coming season can be yours mate, if you keep at it. A great bloke to have around the dressing room and a real asset to the club. Leads the team song at the end of a win with great passion.

Ayden Brown

Ayden is a very promising young fast bowler. 'Brownie' has raw pace, definitely amongst the fastest bowlers in 3rd grade. His development from round 1 to the semi finals saw him improve tremendously. He saved his best for last, bowling a great spell in the semi-final against Gordon in capturing 3 for 32 off 16 penetrating overs. Ayden's ability to put more consistent groupings together with the ball, along with improved seam position could see him progress rapidly. No slouch with the bat either. A player who can strike the ball as clean as anyone, Ayden, with limited innings, figured in a couple of valuable last wicket partnerships. The sky's the limit for this talented young Bulldog. Remember mate, you don't have to bowl a 'wicket ball' every ball. Work to a plan and put the ball in consistently good areas. Do this and we'll be unlikely to see you in 3s again.

Joel Smith

The 'Rocky Balboa' of the side. All heart is our tyro. A player who has played a lot of third grade now, Joel was brought into the side in round 8 to cover for injuries. He certainly didn't let us down capturing 19 wickets at 18 a piece. Working away from home made training difficult for Joel, which had he been able to do this year, I feel his stats would be even better again. A popular team man who wears his heart on his sleeve, Joel possesses a real 'bulldog' attitude to the game. Always a pleasure to captain, an enthusiastic fielder and a decent number 11. Thanks for the year mate, we really hope to see you back next season.

John Rush

Rushy joined the side in round 11 after some time away from grade cricket. After dusting off some cobwebs, Rushy showed that he is a classy wicketkeeper capable of higher grades, which he has previously played. A capable batsman who showed that he has the ability to bat higher in the order, Rushy was a valuable asset to the side and great bloke to have around. A popular team man - thanks for your efforts mate, hope you return for a full season.

Brendon Small

Smally returned to the Dogs after a stint away from cricket due to injuries. A man-mountain, Smally is capable of delivering balls from a great height – regularly hitting a nagging length. He bowled well early on in the year without much luck, until he was rewarded in round 5 vs Sydney with a haul of 4 for 50. A promotion to 2nd grade saw him continue his good form before injury unfortunately struck again. Smally tried his best to come back towards the end of the season to help the club out, which was a gutsy thing to do, however his knee just wasn't quite ready. A passionate cricketer, a great player to have back at the 'Dogs - thanks for the year, Smally and congratulations on the upcoming birth of your little one. If time permits, it would be great to have you back fit and healthy.

Sam Smith

An Englishman full of class on and off the field. Sam came into 3s in round 5 and stayed until round 8 – showing great ability behind the stumps. As well, he possesses all the strokes with the bat, with a best of 48 vs Northern Districts in round 8. Sam approaches his cricket in a very professional manner and would make a good leader. Sam's season was unfortunately cut short, much to the team's disappointment. Higher honours await this talented cricketer and he would be more than welcome back if he ever returns to our sunny shores.

James Bourne

Unselfishly demoted himself from the 2nd grade captaincy after round 4. Not wanting to prevent young aspiring batsman from progressing, James played 4th grade for the majority of the season. Due to other injuries, an 'old head' was needed for our finals campaign and Bourne answered the call to arms. On 36 in the quarter-final vs Sydney Uni, he looked destined to post a big score before getting a contentious lbw decision. His 24 off 135 balls in the semi-final against Gordon was one of determination, concentration and fight, in trying conditions. A great Bulldog, a top bloke and a pleasure to play with again after 15 years. Thanks mate hope to see you down at some games this coming season.

Mat Kelly

The quality of Mat's contribution can be gauged by the fact that he was adjudged joint-winner of the SCA 'Third Grade Captain of the Year' (with Craig Little from Manly Warringah). This honour was just reward for Mat's efforts in leading his side to a minor premiership. A key aspect underpinning Mat's success was his ability to blend experienced players and young players and get the best from both groups. While the side failed to maintain its form in the qualifying and semi-final series the overall results were very satisfying and many young players will benefit enormously from Mat's leadership in 2012/13. First of all I'd like to congratulate Nick Trainor and his St George side for taking out the Reid Cup this season. Season 2012/13 provided the whole club an opportunity to build on the progress we made last year, and that was evident in the attitude in the pre-season with everyone returning keen as to rectify and improve the on field performances from the previous season.

The dedication from both players and coaching staff from the very first pre-season session really paved the way for how we performed as individuals and the improved ladder position that each grade finished in, as well as moving from 13th in the Club Championship to finishing runners-up.

We had 26 players play 4th grade this season, with all players performing admirably, and 10 players putting in performances worthy of higher grade honours.

The batting department was our real strength this season, with our side finishing as the leading run-scorers over the whole competition, including the top 2 individual run scorers.

The really pleasing thing and stand out point from my point of view, was the ability of our batsmen to stand up in the pressure situations and show that they deserve to and should be playing higher grades. A lot of players really matured this year in the 4th grade side, and from a batting point of view, Michael Challita was the standout example of this. Michael's attitude and application to trying to bat time and build partnerships won us many games this year.

Our bowling philosophy this year was to try and build pressure by bowling tight lines and lengths, and we would generate wickets from frustrating the batsmen. This is displayed by all our front line bowlers conceding less than 4 runs per over, while picking up wickets at regular intervals.

Our pace attack was led by Luke Condron, Rhys Williams, Jehan Bilimoria and Joel Smith. All 4 of these boys bowled well in partnerships and often made the early breakthroughs we needed. In particular, Luke was the mainstay of our attack, and often got crucial wickets early in his spell.

From the spin point of view, we were extremely lucky to have Bully for the majority of the year. Darryn's ability to tie up an end and turning the odd one square was invaluable as the bowlers at the other end were really able to attack. At the back end of the year, we were fortunate to gain the services of Harry and Robbo who really showed they were a class above.

Once again, the 4th grade side had an amazing group of parents and supporters who volunteered their time to various duties including scoring, doing the covers and organising afternoon tea. By you being there and putting in those efforts, it made my job as captain and our job as players so much easier, and it doesn't go unnoticed - so thank you very much.

I'd also like to thank all my fellow selectors for their support throughout the year, and the Management committee and Cricket committee for their ongoing support, and doing all the behind the scenes work that often goes unnoticed.

Once again, every player in the club needs to thank Eris and Margaret for their efforts behind the scenes this year. In particular Eris's ongoing passion for the club and ensuring that training was up and running smoothly, as well as game-day is something that will never be matched and as a club we are all extremely fortunate to have Eris around.

I'd also like to thank the coaching staff for their efforts. Crowie's efforts from well before the pre-season started, right the way through every session were 'terrific', and are as much of the reason for the club's success this year as any. The intensity and quality at training certainly improved this year, both in the nets, and out in the field. Thanks Burkey for your efforts at training and making sure that everyone was busting their gut in terms of fielding at training.

In closing, as a club we are building each year, and with the progress we made this year, I don't think a Premiership is too far away. Its an exciting time to be around the club, and competition for spots is as tough as ever. Enjoy your off season and hopefully we'll be seeing you all next season.

Up the Dogs!

PLAYER PROFILES

Jehan Bilimoria

A real breakout year this season for 'The Ox'. Jehan really stood up this season and with a bit more luck his stats could have been even better than they were. The obvious standout for Jehan this year was his 100 not out vs Gordon in the Qualifying Final. It was a result of the continuous hard work at training he has put in with both bat and ball. Bila's 15 wickets at 22 was a great return for him bowling with the new ball. Continued hard work on all disciplines, get even fitter, and your performances will improve again next year in your quest for higher honours. Well done mate!

James Bourne

To have a player of Bourney's experience and ability was a blessing for the 4th grade side this year. His passion to win and ability to destroy bowling attacks was a real factor in us making the semis this year.

Having James at the top of the order often got us off to some great starts, none moreso than when he destroyed Fairfield in the Round 9 one-dayer where he got 127, and got out with more than 15 overs still left. Safe to say I had the best seat in the house at the non-strikers end! It was a pleasure to have you around this year mate and hopefully we'll be seeing you go around again!

Steele Brown

What can we say about Steele. He came into the side as a 14-year-old, fresh into grade cricket, nervous as all hell, and finished off the season confident with both bat and gloves, gave as good as he got, and played one of the toughest innings I have seen from a guy his age in the semi against Sydney with our backs against the wall. Steele batted for over 2 hours against a better-than-4th grade bowling attack and showed he really belonged. Steele is a natural keeper who really worked hard this year and this was evident in his improvement as the year progressed. One bit of advice.... you have an opportunity well ahead of many kids your age. Make sure you take it, and put in the hard yards at training to continue to improve and the sky is the limit for you mate!

Darryn Bull

How lucky were we to have Bully for majority of the year this year! A man for all occasions, as consistent as ever, and showed throughout the year that he is still good enough to be playing higher than 4th grade. All the bowlers learnt a lot off Bully this year, especially in the sense that you don't need to take wicket balls every ball, just be consistent and keep chipping away and the wickets will come your way. Bully was an asset to have in my corner in terms of being someone to run ideas by, and always looking for ways to take wickets. A true legend of the club, and hopefully just because you've now passed your old man in wickets for the club doesn't stop you from going around again next year!

Michael Challita

A real maturing and growing up year for 'Cuz'. Michael has as much ability and hits the ball as hard as anyone at the club, but this year he showed that he is learning the ability to build an innings, and batting to the situation. His innings in Round 2 vs Gordon and Round 8 vs ND's showed great maturity, as he batted for a long period of time, and both innings won us the game. In contrast to this, Michael's hitting in the 2nd innings of the semi when opening the batting, was some of the cleanest hitting I've ever seen and showed his true talents. Keep working hard mate, everyone knows you're good enough to make it, just need to keep that balance between patience and aggression.

Luke Condon

Another great year from Condo. I was lucky as a captain to have someone of Luke's ability all year, someone who can bat anywhere in the top 7, and bowl with the new ball or first change. Luke was our leading wicket taker with 27 wickets at 18, including 6/29 against Gordon where he tore them apart. Luke also scored 298 runs to show his all-round capabilities, including a very disciplined 65 against eventual minor premiers Sydney, showed he has what it takes to make it up the grades. Just believe in yourself mate, you've got all the skills and you'll be playing higher grades next year.

Harry Dean

In just 3 games at the end of the season, GOD, as he likes to be referred to, showed his incredible talents with both bat and ball, taking 11 wickets and scoring 232 in just 4 innings. Harry's century in the qualifying final, with our backs against the wall, took us from 4/100 to 346. It was an innings full of maturity and class. To top it off, he then lurked in with 4 wickets to close the game out. A genuine all-rounder, and a talent who can make it up the grades with both bat and ball.

James Hopkins

A lean season by Jimmy's high standards in his comeback season for the club, after a hiatus of a few years. James always seemed to get a start then either find a way to get himself out, or get a cracker of a ball. Unfortunately, work commitments meant Jim couldn't train as much as necessary to get himself back up to the level required, but hopefully next season will bring some luck and runs as he showed glimpses of his best form in patches throughout the year.

Matthew Hudson

Huddo is one of the most relaxed humans I have met. Nothing seems to faze him. In his debut season of grade cricket, Matthew took to it like a duck to water and seemed to be confident from the outset. Huddo's elegant batting style is a pleasure to watch and his nagging seamers always picked up vital wickets. Looking forward to a massive season full of runs and wickets from you next year mate!

Damien Loy

A bit of an up and down year for Damo. Damien found himself in the middle order after some consistent scores in 5s, and managed to get a few starts - but was unable to go on with them. Damien's most important innings was against eventual premiers St George, where he scored a fighting 53 against a great bowling attack and showed the discipline needed to build innings. Continual hard work will bring success for you mate as you're a natural batsmen with all the shots, just need to harness it and the runs will flow.

Geoff Robson

Mr Reliable. Enough said. Robbo came back to us at the back end of the season and really stamped his authority on the side with an entertaining innings against St George. Robbo's offies are continuously improving and he is always ultra-economical. Geoff has all the attributes to be a genuine all-rounder, he just needs to have the confidence in his abilities that he is good enough, and the results will start showing.

Joel Smith

Joel was a real asset to us in his time spent in 4s this year. Has a heart like Phar Lap and steams in hard all day for you, and you can't ask for more than that. It took Joel a few games to find his rhythm this year, but those that were on the field against Wests when he took 4/21 off 10 and hooped them around have seen why he has played higher grades in the past, and why with hard work and more training, there is no reason why he can't get back up there again.

Rhys Williams

A stop-start year due to injury didn't help Rhys's cause this season, but when he was fit and available, he made his present felt in 4s. Rhys found the aggression necessary as a big, new ball quick, and used that to his advantage throughout the season. His spells at the back end of the year were of a class above and once he found the line and length he needs to bowl with his height, he really hit his straps. Rhys would be filthy if I didn't mention his innings in the qualifying final of 66 not out, dispatching the bowlers to all parts of the ground. Keep working on your fitness, mate. I'm expecting big things from you next season!

Peter Yannopoulos

An unfortunate year for Pete as he just couldn't get a start and always managed to cop that good ball that got him out. Played an amazing innings against Fairfield where he hit a run-a-ball half-century that showed he is well and truly good enough to play at this level. Pete is always great in the field, and hopefully we will see him back with us scoring plenty of runs next year.

Iain Ridley

Iain scored 716 runs at 39.78 and this effort combined with his focused and insightful leadership was a key factor in Fourth Grade running third in the minor premiership. Iain is a dedicated Clubman who is always happy to assist with extra jobs around the Club and this is greatly appreciated by the Committee. (MK)

I'd also like to thank the following players for their valuable contributions to 4th grade this year... Mitch Baker, Ayden Brown, Matthew Clifton, Jake Grove, Daniel Hayes, Pat Henry, Ben Hughes, Anthony Nixon, Ashley Paddison, Tyson Sims, Brendan Smith, Sam Smith.

Congratulations to Gordon on winning the David Sherwood Cup for season 2012/13.

First and foremost, I would like to thank the Bankstown District Cricket Club committee, fellow captains and selectors for the support and guidance I received this season.

Thank you to Geoff Spotswood for captaining the games that I was not able to play during the season. Geoff is certainly someone that everyone can look up to – as a cricketer and mate.

During the season there were a total of 25 players involved in the fifth grade side. As a group, we finished ninth on the table, and with a couple of extra wins, we would have made the semi-finals. It is an improvement from last season and I am sure that with the experience the players gained during the season, next year we will be able to finish higher on the table.

Some highlights of the seasons were: Sam Smith, the English import, scored 130 not out in his only game in 5th grade;

We welcomed back James Hopkins who scored 135n.o. against North Sydney; Our third centurion for the season was Peter Yannopoulos who scored a cracking 116 late in the season; and the top run scorer was Daniel Hayes with 407 runs for the season at an average at 50.88.

One of the great finds of the season was David Lozinski who took 24 wickets – with two five wickets hauls. His best bowling was 5/43 at an average of 14.5.

The team was well supported by the parents and families of all the players. I would like to thank the following people as without assistance, Bankstown Cricket Club wouldn't function:

The fathers that scored again this year;
The wives, girlfriends and mothers for the afternoon teas;
Those who helped with the covers, sight screens, drinks and any other requests;
Warwick Starr and his team for preparing Grahame Thomas Oval; and Finally, the Club for their on-going support of the fifth grade team.

PLAYER PROFILES

Geoff Spotswood

Geoff again was my right-hand man. His on-going love and enthusiasm for cricket is a great inspiration for the young cricketers coming through the club. Thanks again and I hope to play with you for 'one' more season.

Daniel Hayes

Daniel had a great year with the bat and he should be very satisfied with his contribution. With more work on and off the field, Daniel is destined for higher grades – well done, Daniel.

Mathew Lozinski

Mat opened the batting this season and looked good every time he was at the crease. He had a top score of 56 – but on many occasions this could have been higher. Looking forward to next season where he will have greater success.

Joel Azar

Joel played his first full season with the club this year and his infectious enthusiasm on and off the field is what every young cricketer should aspire to. With continued hard work, his performances with both bat and ball will improve next season.

Brendan Smith

Brendan is another young player who has enormous potential. With a high score of 76n.o. and a batting average of 37, this is only a fraction of what he can achieve – looking forward see his development up the grades in seasons to come.

David Allsopp

Dave came into the side to fill in as the wicket keeper and quickly became a large part of our team. Dave batted well and steered our middle order to a couple of wins throughout the season. Playing with Dave next season should be a cracker!

Jake Grove

Jake surprised us this season with his new-found ability to bowl his off-spin. He was consistent throughout the season, taking wickets when required and also added some valuable runs in the lower order. After being exposed to second grade for one game, his confidence went through the roof. I am excited to see this budding rugby league player returning to cricket next season.

Joshua Institoris

Josh was another new member to the side who made a solid contribution, and he is an up and coming all-rounder. With a focus on developing his skills during the off season, I'm confident we will see a very exciting player next season.

David Lozinski

'Davee' was the find of the season. He is naturally talented and his left arm orthodox spin bowling got better as the season progressed. His bowling is mature beyond his years and I am sure that as he gets older, he will be playing higher grades and levels of cricket. Well done, Dave.

Anthony Nixon

Anthony opened the batting in the eight games he played. He had a high score of 71 and with a touch more luck, would have scored more heavily during the season. I'm confident Anthony will be a real asset for the club as he gains more experience.

Jehan Bilimoria

The 'Ox' was rewarded with his bowling in fifth grade by being included in the fourth grade team for the majority of the season. With a heart the size of Phar Lap, if asked, he would bowl every second over of every game – well done Jehan, I look forward to seeing your progress next season.

Damien Loy

Damien was again rewarded with a higher-grade spot after scoring 93, and averaging 45 in his stint in fifth grade. Congratulations Damien – a future leader of the club.

Patrick Henry

Pat is a great clubman and was unfortunate not to play as many games as he would have liked. The games he did play, he bowled well. His best figures were 4/30 and hopefully with more training he will be back to his old self.

Mat Doab

Fifth Grade skipper is arguably the most challenging job at the Club and Mat handled it with great aplomb. Mat was able to motivate his young players to perform to their best, leading the side to a commendable ninth place, just one win away from a qualifying finals berth. A committed and passionate Clubman Bulldog Mat is a terrific role model for our young players. (MK)

I would also like to thank the following players for their contribution this season: James Hopkins, Sam Smith, Matthew Hudson, Robbie Obseev, Niran Wijewardene, Ben La Bas, Kayne Grove, Brendon Small, Luke Maloney and David Drew.

With an eye to the future, a 15-man squad was selected to contest this season's A.W. Green Shield. Out of the 15 players, 10 were under 15 or younger, which should give the squad a steady base for the future.

Congratulations must go out to Matthew Hudson on being selected as captain of the squad. With such a young, large squad, Matthew handled the difficult task with aplomb. The side did very well to finish in 11th position with 3 wins and a tie. For such a young side, this was a good result that we hope to build on in future seasons. Special thanks needs to go to coach Ray Hall for his tireless efforts in preparing the team. Ray, as usual, never missed an opportunity to run a training session and revelled in the opportunity to grab these young boys and develop their work ethic whilst teaching them the Bulldog culture. The effort Ray puts into Green Shield is second to none. Also, special thanks to Michael Grove and Paul Sullivan for doing the majority of the scoring. As in past seasons, a big thank you to all the parents for their assistance. It makes our job easier and a big thank you to all for your efforts.

Matthew Hudson – Captain

Matthew handled the captaincy of this young squad very well and grew as a player throughout the series. Being a very classy allrounder, Matthew contributed in all facets of the game and led from the front in all games.

Daniel Hayes – Vice Captain

Daniel had a solid series and I'm sure would have liked to capitalise more on some of his opportunities following up on his great 1st full grade season. A hard working hard hitting batsman and excellent fielder, Daniel will be looking for some big performances in next year's Green Shield to capitalise on the hard work he's put into developing his game.

Steele Brown

Steele is another player eligible for next season and learnt a lot from being thrown into the deep end. Steele grew as a keeper throughout the series. Whilst not getting a lot of batting opportunities, he showed he's a gritty player that has benefitted greatly from the experience he gained throughout this season.

Kyle Chisholm

Kyle came into the squad as a 14 year old expecting to gain some experience and ended up spearheading our attack taking 16 wickets, despite only being allowed to bowl 4 over spells! Kyle bowled with good pace, but line and length was his strength. Eligible for 2 more Green Shield campaigns and with continued hard work, Kyle has a bright future with the dogs.

Steven Christodoulos

In his 2nd Green Shield season, Steven struggled to capitalise on his talent and his form. Technically a very good high order batsman, Steven needs to show more confidence in his abilities to cash in on his talent.

Bailey Dickinson

At 13, "Baby Bailey" was selected with an eye to future and more than held his own at this level. Whilst not playing every game, Bailey's attitude was fantastic in supporting his team mates and was rewarded for his efforts with a fantastic 29 vs Randwick. A future leader and player to watch in the future who has benefitted greatly from his experiences this year.

Tushaar Garg

Tush came into the squad after a great Watson Shield series and as a genuine allrounder. Things didn't quite work out as well for Tush, but his attitude was fantastic and when given an opportunity to open the batting, showed his class with some consistent performances. Tush has the attitude and work ethic to succeed in the game.

Kayne Grove

Kayne worked really hard on his game and proved to himself and others he has the ability to succeed at this level. Given an opportunity at the top of the order after not quite taking advantage of some starts in the middle order, Kayne grabbed the chance with both hands and was rewarded with 60 in his first attempt. Finishing 2nd highest run scorer was a great reward for his efforts.

Josh Institoris

Josh came into the series as a senior player after his experience last year, and grew into the role as the series went longer. Josh showed glimpses of what he is capable of, but didn't quite achieve his maximum potential. With continued commitment, Josh is more than capable of more consistent performances in his future grade career.

Ben Le Bas

Another of Hally's pups who has benefitted from this year's experience. Ben excited a lot of purist's around the club with his left hand chinamens and with continued hard work, has the attributes to have a big future with the club. A more than capable batsman, Ben should play a big part in next season's campaign.

David Lozinski

Little Loz had a fantastic series finishing as leading wicket taker with 17 wickets in his 1st series. David will play an intrical part in next season's series with his left hand offies. David has a great cricket brain, plenty of tenacity and the work ethic to see him go a long way in the club and the game. David was rewarded with selection in the Green Shield merit squad which capped off a great allround year.

Luke Slatter

Unfortunately for Luke and the team, Luke had a bad knee injury prior to the start of the series and played only the one game. In his second year in the squad, the team didn't get to benefit from Luke's prior experience and skill as a leg spinner. Luke's attitude was second to none and his efforts to be right to play are to be commended.

Brendan Smith

Brendan had a fantastic series. Finishing as our highest run scorer, he showed he has all the attributes to be a great player for the future. Brendan showed composure beyond his years to build his innings and scored 3 fifties for the series. Great in the field and a handy medium pacer, Brendan will be another of these boys that has benefitted from his experience this series. Brendan was also rewarded with selection in the Green Shield Merit squad.

Josh Sullivan

Another 'youngen', Josh came into the squad as a quality all-rounder, and he will have benefitted from this year's experience. Used mainly as a top order batsman, Josh made plenty of starts, but somehow managed to find ways to get out! With continued hard work and effort, Josh has the potential to be a major player in next year's squad and as a future grade cricketer.

Niran Wijewardene

"Finding" is one of the most committed and hardest working young players in the club and another genuine all-rounder. When in control of the ball, Niran is a very effective fast bowler and more than handy lower order bat. Niran made contributions in all aspects of the game during this series and I'm sure with his continued hard work, will play a major role in next year's series.

BEN SMITH

291 runs at 41.57

highest score 159

1 century

1 fifty

11 sixes

18 fours

The 2012-13 PG Season was a bit of a disappointing one for us as a team. We set ourselves high expectations at the start of the year hoping to feature in the finals series but unfortunately our performances did not allow for that.

We won 3 matches out of 7 and finished 13th on the ladder. Although these are disappointing stats, the year was not all doom and gloom, considering that we will retain 13 out of the 15 players that we used for next year's competition, and nine players in our squad were part of our Green Shield winning team from a few years ago.

A lot of our younger players gained valuable experience this season against some quality 1st grade cricketers, which will hold us in good stead for the coming years. We had some good individual performances throughout the season. Ben Smith played one of the best PG innings you will ever see, when he made 159 off 134 balls against Randwick with 8 fours and 9 sixes. Ash Patterson made 2 really good 50s against 1st grade-quality bowling under pressure. Ash also took a really good 5-wicket haul against Sydney Uni and will be a player that we will rely on in the coming years. Jake Cormack led the team well in his 1st year as captain and will be better for the experience next year.

As a team, we will pull together in the off-season and work harder than ever to ensure that we are better prepared next year to give the competition a shake.

There are a few people that I would like to thank for their help this year:

Shane Cormack did a great job as manager and I thank him for everything he contributed. He arranged drinks, uniforms, scorebooks, balls, scorers... the lot!

The only thing he didn't do was bat or bowl for us! It was great having you around Shane and I hope we can reward you with some on-field success next year.

Chris Small and Ray Hall also assisted on match days, thank you for taking time out on your Sundays to come down and assist the boys.

Our scorers Mark Condron, Pat Bush and whoever else had a crack at it during the year. Your help is greatly appreciated and thanks for taking the time out to help the boys and me.

It has been a real privilege coaching such a great group of young men this year – you can all be proud of the way you have carried yourselves on and off the field, you have proudly represented your club and I really feel that the results are not far away.

PLAYER PROFILES

Jake Cormack

Jake did a good job in his first year as skipper of the PG team. He had the respect of his teammates and showed good leadership qualities. With the bat Jake played some good cameo innings without going on to make the big scores that we know he is capable of. I am looking forward to big things from him next year in our quest for the title.

Ben Smith

Smithy showed his class against Randwick with his 159 and also made a great 80 against Blacktown. These two innings demonstrated the talent he has. Ben will be a big part of what we do next year. Congratulations on a good year and I am looking forward to watching you dominate the competition next season.

Dean Bush

Bushy probably didn't finish the PG season with the numbers that he was looking for, but I cannot fault his effort – he always gives 100% and is a great team man. In the absence of Mitchell Phelps, Bushy will be leading our attack next year, a task I know he is ready for. I encourage Dean to continue working hard on his batting as he is a capable lower order hitter.

Nathan McAndrew

Macca showed glimpses of his all-round ability in PGs this year without setting the world on fire. With the bat he threatened to make big scores, always looking at ease at the crease. With the ball was tidy taking some handy wickets. With a bit more ownership and patience next year I am sure Nathan will have a great year for us. Macca is a great competitor and loves to win – which is a key ingredient for success.

Ashley Paddison

Paddo can be proud of what he achieved in his first year in PGs. He showed that he is a high-quality batsman making two really good 50s in pressure situations against good bowling. Paddo also contributed well with the ball taking a match-winning five wickets against Sydney Uni. The most pleasing thing about Ashley's game this year was the improvement that he made and the maturity that he displayed. Congratulations on a great series, it was reward for your persistence and hard work.

Michael Challita

Mick had limited opportunity this year but was great to have as a part of our squad. He proved what a great attitude he has by always putting the team first and encouraging his mates. With some solid grade performances next year I am sure he can cement a place in our top order.

Mark Morley

Mark had a bit of a disappointing year with the bat in PGs but I think there is a lot he can take away from the competition. There is no doubt that Mark has the ability to succeed at PG level – which he proved in grade cricket this year with an outstanding season. With a bit more self-belief I am sure that he will be a force in the competition next year.

Mitchell Phelps

Mitch bowled some really good spells in PGs this year – leading our attack with the new ball. He also played some really good innings in the lower order during the year to help us make competitive totals. This was Mitchell's last year of PGs and I thank him for his efforts in the last two years. He always gave 100% and was a great role model for the younger players in the side. Enjoy your Saturday nights mate, I am sure you will give it a nudge.

Daniel Solway

For a player of Sols' ability I am sure he will not be satisfied with his numbers this year. He is a player that sets himself high standards and takes a lot of pride in his performances. Although the year probably didn't go to plan, Sols always displayed a great attitude and continued to work hard at his game. My advice to Daniel would be to keep loving what you do, persisting, working hard and the results will come your way – as the talent and ability is evident. Daniel was very tidy behind the stumps and I would encourage him to keeping working hard in this area.

Matthew Smith

Smithy bowled some tidy spells for us this year without taking the wickets that he would have liked. This can happen at times and he should not be discouraged about this. Spin bowling is not an easy art especially in one day cricket. Keep looking to improve Matty and the tide will turn and wickets will come. Smithy's batting improved out of sight this year and he should set himself a goal to develop this area as he has the potential to be a top order player. Thanks for your services in PGs and all the best in your quest in higher honours for the club.

Harry Dean

Haz is another one that has a few more years in this competition and will become a better player through his experiences in PGs this year. He had limited opportunity due to us making some low totals but will be a vital player for us moving forward. He also showed this year that he has the capability to be a genuine all-rounder, so I encourage him to see himself as that and work equally as hard on both areas of his game.

Matthew Clifton

Matty made his debut in PGs this year and proved against Sydney Uni that he is capable of doing well at this level. Matt gives us good balance in our batting order as he has a good temperament, and with stroke makers around him, he can anchor our innings. Clifty also brings a great deal of enthusiasm to our squad and is an energetic and valuable fieldsman.

Luke Condron

Luke did not get the opportunities that he would have liked this year, but has the talent to become a vital part of our PG success. He can bat, bowl and field and is a fierce competitor. Luke always gave 100% and put his hand up in tough situations. He would always find himself in the game when it was on the line and played a great lower order innings against Penrith to help get us home.

Ayden Brown & Geoff Robson were also a part of our squad and played one match each this year. With consistent grade performances next year they will both come into calculations for PG selection.

women's cricket

Bankstown's extraordinary first grade women's cricket team stepped up once again in March to claim their sixth consecutive first grade championship – beating Universities by three wickets at the Sydney University Number One Oval.

This was Bankstown Sports seventh straight appearance in the Grand Final, however, for the first time in a number of seasons they were not the clear favourites. Universities had been the team to beat all summer, boasting two international players in Alex Blackwell (Australian Vice-Captain) and Rachael Haynes, and finishing 16 points clear on the top of the competition ladder.

Bankstown Sports won the toss and elected to bowl. With just 10 runs on the board Sharon Millanta and Rhiannon Dick had claimed the vital wickets of Alex Blackwell (5) and Rachael Haynes (4). The defending champions managed to keep taking wickets at regular intervals, denying Universities' powerful batting line-up the chance to build partnerships. Batting at number three, Kara Sutherland (51) was the only Universities player to reach a half-century and they were eventually bowled out for 164 in the final over of the innings.

For Bankstown Sports, captain Sarah Aley finished with 3-21 from 10 overs with Sharon Millanta (2-29) and Belinda Allard (2-28) the other multiple wicket takers. Rhiannon Dick, Ashleigh Gardiner & Emma Newman all took a wicket each in a comprehensive bowling and fielding display by the entire Bankstown Sports Team where Carly Ryan, Nerida Gregory, Tayla Kafoa, Melissa Penman and Corrine Hall were once again lively in the field. Laura Wright was again in immaculate form behind the stumps with a catch and two stumpings.

Bankstown Sports suffered an early setback in their run chase with opener Laura Wright (6) falling early, then Sharon Millanta lost her wicket to see the score at 2-30. However, a 73-run third wicket stand between Sarah Aley (51) and Carly Ryan (32) helped them remain on course, getting home in the 39th over. Aley was named Player of the Match.

President of Bankstown Sports Women's Cricket Club, Robert Smith commented; "This achievement has created this team as a dynasty in women's cricket in Sydney – to win six consecutive premierships in any sport at any level is an amazing achievement let alone in the premier club championship in Australia."

He cited the side's exceptional team spirit, high skill levels and knowledge of each other's game strengths as critical factors. "All but three of the grand final team are currently playing in state level squads, representing NSW, the ACT and Tasmania," Smith says. "They all enjoy the games and each other's company – and they have a great attitude, which in my view is the most important aspect. They have fun!

"The team is very proud to be part of the Bankstown Sports Club family of sporting clubs & for the support our club receives from Bankstown Sports Club. I would like to particularly thank Beverley & Richards Phillips for their support. Our club is also very appreciative of the support it receives from the Bankstown Cricket Club. After the win the players & supporters went straight to Bankstown Sports Club to celebrate the win which it has done all six times."

Bankstown Sports Women's Cricket Club Publicity Officer Kerrie Todd commented that the team had earned its victory. "Never write this champion team off and give them full credit because six (premierships) in a row against all-comers is outstanding."

2nd Grade

This season again proved to be challenging for 2nd grade due to limited player availability. After a slow start to the season the team gradually picked up momentum & when the 50 over games started and the team make-up started to have some stability a series of good wins resulted. The team finished 3rd in both competitions. Unfortunately the Twenty/20 finals series was washed out and the team lost the 50 over competition semi-final to Northern District (Northern District 8/204 from 50 overs – C. Devlin 2/24; R. Jagtap 1/16; E. Cosgrove 1/20; S. Robinson 1/25; K. Gauci 1/30; L. Beattie 1/37 defeated Bankstown Sports 156 all out - O. Hatcher 27; S. Robinson 26; C. Devlin 15; L. Beattie 15; K. Gauci 14. The team was captained by Samantha Devlin.

Brewer Shield

This season saw a number of new players join this team with all players benefiting from a strong season of grade cricket. The team started the season well finishing minor premiers in the Twenty/20 competition with 7 wins. Unfortunately the team lost to Campbelltown-Camden in the semi-final (C-C 3/83 – B. Anderson 1/10; R. Ranawaka 1/22 defeated Bankstown Sports 7/81 off 20 overs – R. Jagtap 18; O. Hatcher 13; P. Roebuck 10. The team was unable to carry this form into the 40 over competition, however, the experience in this competition assisted in developing the players skill levels which will assist greatly in the coming season. The team was captained by Olivia Hatcher.

two stalwarts retire

DEAN MAGEE

Dean Magee's career with the Bulldogs commenced in 1989 when he was selected in the A.W.Green Shield team and since then has played in every grade and competition in which the club competes.

During that time Dean amassed 8461 runs of which 2529 were in first grade and he is the 5th highest run scorer in the club's history.

His hard hitting is legendary and memories of many of his remarkable innings are enduring, none more so than his 133 against Penrith in 1st grade in 2004/5. He was equally talented fielding in the slips cordon and was still taking 'screamers' this season at an age where most would be suffering from failing eyesight and reflexes.

An outstanding student of the game, Dean's record as a successful captain was someone who was able to take an average team and turn them into a winning combination. His recipe was to lead from the front with a competitive, no nonsense, straight-talking and direct approach.

Telstra will be all the poorer for Dean's retirement. He had (and still has) more friends and acquaintances in and conversations about Sydney grade cricket than any other ten cricketers combined as attested by the gathering at his recent 40th birthday.

Dean was awarded life membership in 2012, a richly-deserved honour. He will be sorely missed on the playing field but we can rest assured that he will be around cajoling and urging his beloved Bulldogs on to higher honours.

JAMES BOURNE

When James Bourne was selected in the A.W. Green Shield in 1995, it meant that the Bourne name that first graced the scoreboard via Dion in 1960, would continue on our playing list for another 18 years.

Like Dean, James has also played in every grade and competition in which the club competes and his honour board entry details he has scored 5820 runs in all grades.

Highly admired for his fair and friendly approach – especially when captaining 2nd and 3rd grade teams, James again this year displayed the best of his selfless qualities by dropping himself when he believed his form was not good enough to continue in 2nd grade.

James has always been happy to assist in the running of the club, especially in tasks like managing and coaching the PG teams. Hopefully, this will continue into the future as his smiling face and good nature are a pleasure to be around.

MAURIE LILIENTHAL

Maurice Lilienthal was born in Hastings, New Zealand on December 17, 1917, one of 10 children to Ruben Lilienthal, a tailor, and his wife, Yenta. The family moved to Australia after Ruben had visited to find work as a clothing designer and a house in Clovelly. Maurice loved the sea and living near the beach, and in those days the family never locked their doors.

In the early 1930s, he started going to the SCG to watch rugby league and the major cricket matches in the summer. He saw Alan Kippax, Don Bradman, Jack Fingleton, Bill Brown, Bill Ponsford, Bill Woodfull and Bill O'Reilly, and watched Lindsay Hassett score a century in each innings against NSW. He also saw Stan McCabe score 189 not out against Douglas Jardine's feared bodyline attack. It was important for him to watch them bat because as a young fellow he had no coaching in the game at all.

The AW Green Shield under 16s competition started in 1935. Maurice was picked for Marrickville Under 16s team, which won the competition, and Bradman presented him with his winning cap. The residential qualifications meant that Maurice had to play in the area where he lived, so he had to play for Cumberland, which was at Parramatta. In a game against Mosman he caught Stan McCabe on the leg side. As McCabe passed him on his way to the pavilion he was full of smiles and he said to Maurice "well caught".

Lilienthal left school and became a shop assistant; at about 19 he owned his own grocery shop. He worked there for 50 to 60 hours a week and played cricket on Saturday afternoons, catching trains and trams to get to matches.

In 1941, he married Gladys Goldman and they moved to Concord West, so he played with Western Suburbs as a batsman and wicket keeper.

During this time, Lilienthal became friends with Jack Fitzpatrick and they became pivotal members of the force that saw the Bankstown Cricket Club enter the Sydney Grade competition in 1951 with Lilienthal as its first chairman. Over the years, the club produced a host of talented representative and international players, including Steve and Mark Waugh.

Lilienthal was associated with the Bankstown Club from 1951 to 2001. He played in the lower grades in the debut year and was on selection committees as well as the management committee. He was a delegate to the NSW Cricket Association and in 1957 was appointed manager the NSW Sheffield Shield Team, which included Grahame Thomas, the first Bankstown player to play for Australia. As Lilienthal became a successful retailer, he was also a generous benefactor to the Bankstown Club.

Lilienthal was later appointed manager of the NSW Colts but his most important state role was as chairman of the country committee for the association. It was an onerous task because of distances involved but he realised the depth of talent available in the bush and the importance of tapping into it. Looking at the number of country boys who went on to become superstars for Australia, it is obvious that cricket promotion in the bush was important - from Doug Walters right through to Mark Taylor, Glenn McGrath, Michael Bevan and Michael Slater.

For his dedicated service to NSW cricket, Lilienthal was made a life member of the NSW Cricket Association as well as the Bankstown Cricket Club. In 2001, he received the Order of Australia Medal.

Maurice Lilienthal is survived by daughters Robyn and Wendy, son-in-law Graham and grandchildren Lyndon and Tristan. Gladys died in 1990.

IAN GORMAN

Club Members were saddened to hear of the sudden death of much-loved player and administrator Ian 'Canuta' Gorman in July 2012.

Ian debuted for the club in 1961-62 when he played two games in Green Shield. The following season he was a member of the Premiership winning AW Green Shield side. From 1963 – 64 Ian worked his way through the grades before being selected in First Grade in 1967-68. Ian also represented NSW Colts in the same year.

Ian continued as 1st Grade wicketkeeper until the 1974-75 season when injury and illness ended his exceptional run in the top grade. Ian continued to play lower grades even helping mentor our young players in 5th Grade. Remarkably, or perhaps unremarkably for someone of Ian's character, he was again selected in 1st Grade in 1978-79 before returning down the grades to skipper 5th Grade in 1981-82.

In addition to his exceptional on-field efforts Ian was a wonderful off-field contributor. He was Social Secretary for over a decade, organising harbour cruises, cabaret nights and even overseas tours. He was a Senior Vice President and served on numerous selection panels and sub-committees.

In 1981 Ian was awarded Life Membership for his sterling efforts to the Club both on and off the field.

ROBERT JOHN THOMAS (BOB) BOWER

Bob Bower was a life member and hardworking Secretary for nine seasons between 1977 and 1985.

Although Bob took a very low profile his efforts on behalf of our players were indeed tireless. Bob ran the club as a family affair with wife Gloria a staunch and forthright confidant. Son Rod was a prolific run-getter for the Bulldogs who represented NSW and still maintains a connection to Sydney Grade cricket through his player development activities. Daughter Suzanne provided Bob with valuable clerical support and even found a husband at the Club – highly respected first grade skipper Trevor McDonald.

Bob was a gifted and tough Rugby League footballer playing 1st grade with the mighty St George Club during its most successful era.

Bob worked with three Club Presidents in Sid Boddy, John Bull and finally Brian Freedman, and each of them was lavish in their praise of the dedicated Secretary.

Bob passed away on 21st June 2013 following a short illness.

PATRICIA THOMPSON

All Club members were saddened to hear of the passing in late May of Pat Thompson, the beloved wife of Bill and adored mother of Alan, David, Scott and Natalie after a brave battle with cancer.

A most gracious lady, Pat is well remembered as a great supporter of the club, particularly during David and Scott's playing days.

A respected and successful teacher, Pat was highly regarded for her contribution in the Lawn Bowls and wider Bankstown communities through the Revesby Workers' Club.

Pat will be fondly remembered as a kind-hearted person who carried herself with unassuming dignity and always considered the needs of others.
